"I, Edwin G. House '42, pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

IN CONGRESS. JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. ——— We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. ——— He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. ——— He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. ——— He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. ——— He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. ——— He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions to cause others to be elected, whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. ——— He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. ——— He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers. ——— He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the Tenure of their Offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. ——— He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their substance. ——— He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our Legislatures. ——— He has affected to render the Military independent of, and superior to, the Civil power. ——— He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: — For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: — For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: — For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: — For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences — For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: — For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: — For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. — He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. — He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brothers, or to fall themselves by their hands. — He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free People. — Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. — We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

OUR THEME

AMERICANISM! Who does not feel a breathtaking mingling of pride, joy, and reverence at the sound of the word? What American girl or boy, woman or man, can say he is not stirred by the strains of our national anthem or by the raising of "Old Glory" or by the passing of a khaki-uniformed soldier? Our Constitution, drawn up over a century and a half ago by men loyal to their newly-won independence, endows every citizen with certain rights—the privileges of life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness. We Americans owe to the future generations, as well as to ourselves, our full support toward the unification and defense of this land of unequaled opportunities.

And so it was with this thought in mind that the editors chose Americanism as the theme for the 1941 "Coyote," and it is their desire to leave with the students this annual in which are pictured examples of the innumerable pleasures as well as the educational opportunities which America offers us.

Grammar is the chief study in sophomore English: junior English takes up both grammar and literature. Senior English deals mostly with classic literature. Senior students having the ability to write may, upon the recommendation of their English teachers, substitute journalism for the regular English course. The journalism class has charge of the school newspaper, the Coyote News. The English department also sponsors the yearbook, the Coyote, and the Writers' Club.

Coyote

The choice of Americanism as the theme for the 1941 COYOTE marked the enthusiastic beginning of a year's diligent and persistent work by editors, sponsors, and staff members to produce a yearbook which, it is believed, will not soon be forgotten.

The untiring energy and patience of the Coyote sponsors deserve first recognition, for, doubtless, the 1941 Coyote would not be a reality had their experience and judgment not been exercised and their plans executed. Miss Ida Jane Collins acted as literary sponsor, Miss Lois McGaughy, art and layout supervisor, while Mr. Orren T. Freeman and Mr. Gambill Sullivan negotiated with the printers and worked out the finances connected with the publication and sale of the yearbook.

One of the most responsible positions on the staff was that given to Zona Ruth Warman, organization editor. Her duties consisted of planning the class section and of checking and re-checking all material which was turned in.

Feature and Clubs
Barbara Keenan

Because of the many organizations involved and the large groups of students and teachers to be interviewed, the work of the club and feature section is very important. Barbara Keenan filled the position of clubs and feature editor well. To break the monotony of the usual type of feature page, different themes were used as bases for these pages. Pictures carrying out various themes were used; thus originated the jubilee pages, stadium scenes, assembly, and others.

Joe Sweeney and Larry Moore, having assisted with collections last year, were promoted to the position of business managers. Assisted by Wyneth Berry, capable record keeper and her group of collectors in the cafeteria, these boys aided their advisers is handling the financial side of the yearbook.

Staff

Staff members are chosen because of their scholastic records, their executive ability, and their willingness to serve. By vote of the faculty and senior council, Tom Davis and Betty Sue Tennyson were chosen co-editors, Tom's taking over the general management and Betty Sue's filling the position of literary editor. Besides the routine office work, which includes the running of many errands, the editors were responsible for the composition of the theme and the editorial write-ups in the book.

Having been junior art assistants last year, Billie Leona Harris and Maxine Fuson rightfully took over the very important task of making the book attractive with layouts and color work. Many hours of careful and tedious work by these editors were responsible for the unique division and opening pages, which enhance the beauty of the different sections.

The sports section was edited by Jimmy Simmons, who was assisted by Temple Driver and other staff members. Jimmy was well suited to his task because of his love for all phases of athletics and his loyalty to the COYOTES.

Bereniece Bell was largely responsible for the favorite section, which included for the first time this year pictures of a group of students elected to represent various traits of character necessary to worthwhile citizenship. Thus, the general theme of Patriotism is portrayed throughout the section in a very attractive manner.

No yearbook could be a success without good photography, and the Coyote proves no exception to this rule. Photographers must be very agile as well as good-natured and ready at any time to make pictures. Night trips to games, dances, and other school activities were a part of the schedule. Bob Lea furnished suggestions for the pictorial arrangements which portrays the school life in WFSH, while Eugene Yeakley, with his tireless energy, worked over hours to make the 1941 COYOTE a true portrayal of all school activities.

To acquaint its students with the important life functions as they are found in the living environment is the aim of the biology department. Three phases of study are involved. About one-third of the year is devoted to the study of animals, one-third to plants, and the remaining third to that of the human body.

This department is rich in material, having specimens, both living and preserved, as well as charts, models, and pictures. These are all available to the students. WFSH is justly proud of a department having such excellent educational facilities.

To the student, chemistry ceases to be a concoction of magic, bad odors, loud explosions and becomes an organized understanding of the basic principles of the common chemical changes which occur in a person's everyday life.

In a study of the sciences, many students get inspiration to train for the profession of doctor, nurse, or chemical engineer; in addition to this, they obtain a fuller understanding of their environment.

For those students interested in learning to use their hands efficiently, our well-equipped manual training department offers excellent opportunities. Under the supervision of a competent instructor, boys are not only trained in the primary principles of the course, but they are also encouraged to develop in themselves qualities necessary to patriotic citizenship.

Some of the outstanding students are Edwin Kroettinger, Wilbert Felts, Lloyd Farmer, Kenneth Martin, and Charles Fincher.

Outstanding students this year are Lawrence Patton, Charlton Williams, Charles Brice, Roy Lee Harmon, Buddy Moore, and Charles Fincher.

Art

Under the direction of Miss Lois McGaughy and Miss Joyce Samuels, three years of art are offered to the students of WFSH. The courses are designed as a basis for the future work of art majors and as a training course in appreciation for those who do not plan to specialize in the art field.

The courses include poster and art drawing in advertising, lettering, designing, figure drawing, modeling, painting, and block printing. General appreciation courses are offered in industrial designing, architecture, interior decorating, and painting.

This department strives to co-operate with all the other departments in the making of posters, block prints, letter designs, and announcements. Students from the art department plan the layouts and work on the art division of the yearbook.

The a cappella, orchestra, and glee club of the WFSH Music Department have made appearances on a number of outstanding programs during the year including assembly, church, club, and convention programs. The year's work was climaxed with a concert in the spring.

The a cappella was honored in being presented before the First District of Music Clubs which convened in Vernon in November.

The department also offers a general music course, which studies harmony, technique, and appreciation of the classics as well as the opera.

Library

One of the busiest places in school is the Snider Library. Under the efficient supervision of the librarians and their helpers, this workshop provides a research laboratory where students may supplement their class work and spend many happy hours in recreational reading.

The school acknowledges a great indebtedness to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Snider, who founded the library in 1924. Since then, this benevolent couple have constantly been adding books and magazines to the already large variety of excellent reading material.

Miss Natalie Gorin heads the librarians. She is aided by Miss Mary Cox, a newcomer to our school, Mrs. Rose Enlow, Mrs. Cora E. Walden, and thirty-one student assistants.

Study Halls

Working laboratories which students of WFSH could hardly do without are three large study halls. These give the students ample opportunity to get their assignments at school; thus is provided more leisure time for social activities. By the use of the rotation system a student is provided with one library period a week.

Ideal study conditions prevail in these rooms; these are obtained through orderly conduct and good lighting facilities. In charge of 222, the gym study hall, is Mrs. John Wilkes. Mrs. Ruth Harris supervisès 220. Room 240 is taken care of throughout the day by various teachers.

Additional Seniors

Approximately four hundred ninety seniors make up the May graduating class. Effort has been made to include all of the May seniors in the book. Seniors whose names are marked with asterisks are not pictured.

Many summer school graduates have pictures in the regular class section. These are designated with asterisks. Others who have decided to remain another year in WFSH are pointed out.

American Patriots

Among the attributes of character which best reflect the nature of a true patriot are service, loyalty, honesty, courtesy, cheerfulness, sportsmanship, friendliness, scholarship, and health. Each of these qualities represents a distinct characteristic; yet the elements may be so closely allied that a person's nature is often a composition of several of these traits. Thus, one may be called a worthy citizen who possesses to a high degree one or more of these attributes.

Ideals of patriotism are best portrayed by the students of WFSH who put into use these qualities; they are the leaders of the mental, physical, and social life of the school. Favorites whose pictures appear in this section were first nominated by the faculty and student councils; later elections were held in the classrooms. They were elected by popular vote and were chosen because they are concrete examples of the highest ideals of the school in their respective fields. They represent living examples of real American patriots and citizens.

So, in presenting this new feature as a part of the favorite section, the staff believes that the reader may obtain a pictorial representation of the general theme of the book—Americanism.

DEFINITIONS OF THE NINE ATTRIBUTES

By SERVICE is meant the dependable service to WFSH—not the big services, but more particularly the small, constantly repeated ones.

LOYALTY means the constant, faithful allegiance to WFSH and to fellow students.

HONESTY is portrayed by a person's courage in his own convictions and a consistent uprightness in his dealings with others.

COURTESY is shown by a student's politeness and kindness, his expression of marked consideration for the comfort and feelings of others.

CHEERFULNESS accompanies a consistent buoyancy of spirit and the imparting of this feeling to others.

SPORTSMANSHIP means fairness and consideration in dealing with one's opponents the same as with his fellow teammates. This quality also includes love and appreciation for sports of all kinds.

FRIENDLINESS is shown by students who possess the characteristics necessary for making and keeping friends and in being loyal to those friends.

SCHOLARSHIP is the consistent attainment of high scholastic averages, as well as sincere appreciation of the literary and scientific accomplishments of others.

HEALTH is best shown by a radiant, wide-awake person whose body is free from pain and disease. This quality does not necessarily include the ability to excel in sports, but an interest in them is an outstanding characteristic.

Corridor Assistants

The purpose of this organization is to regulate traffic within the building and to limit the amount of noise. Under the guidance of Mr. H. V. Harrison, the staff has been very successful in accomplishing these aims. In order to remain on the force, the assistants must maintain high citizenship and scholastic averages. They showed these traits of worthy citizenship by helping direct traffic at the football games besides their regular school duties.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves have promoted good fellowship and service throughout the year by giving aid to Greece, China, World War veterans, and other unfortunates; each year the girls devote part of their time to promoting good fellowship by giving dances, parties, and picnics.

At the beginning of each semester, the Girl Reserves have special duties to perform. They assist the office by running errands, aiding the new students in finding their rooms; and they are found willing to serve when the need arises.

Events make the study of Spanish important for all who live in the United States. For Texas that importance takes on larger proportions because we are close to the greater portion of the Spanish-speaking world. The Spanish Club of WFSH is furthering this movement in our community. Through our study of Spanish we hope to do our part in helping to unite all the Americas in friendship, in culture, and in better commercial relations.

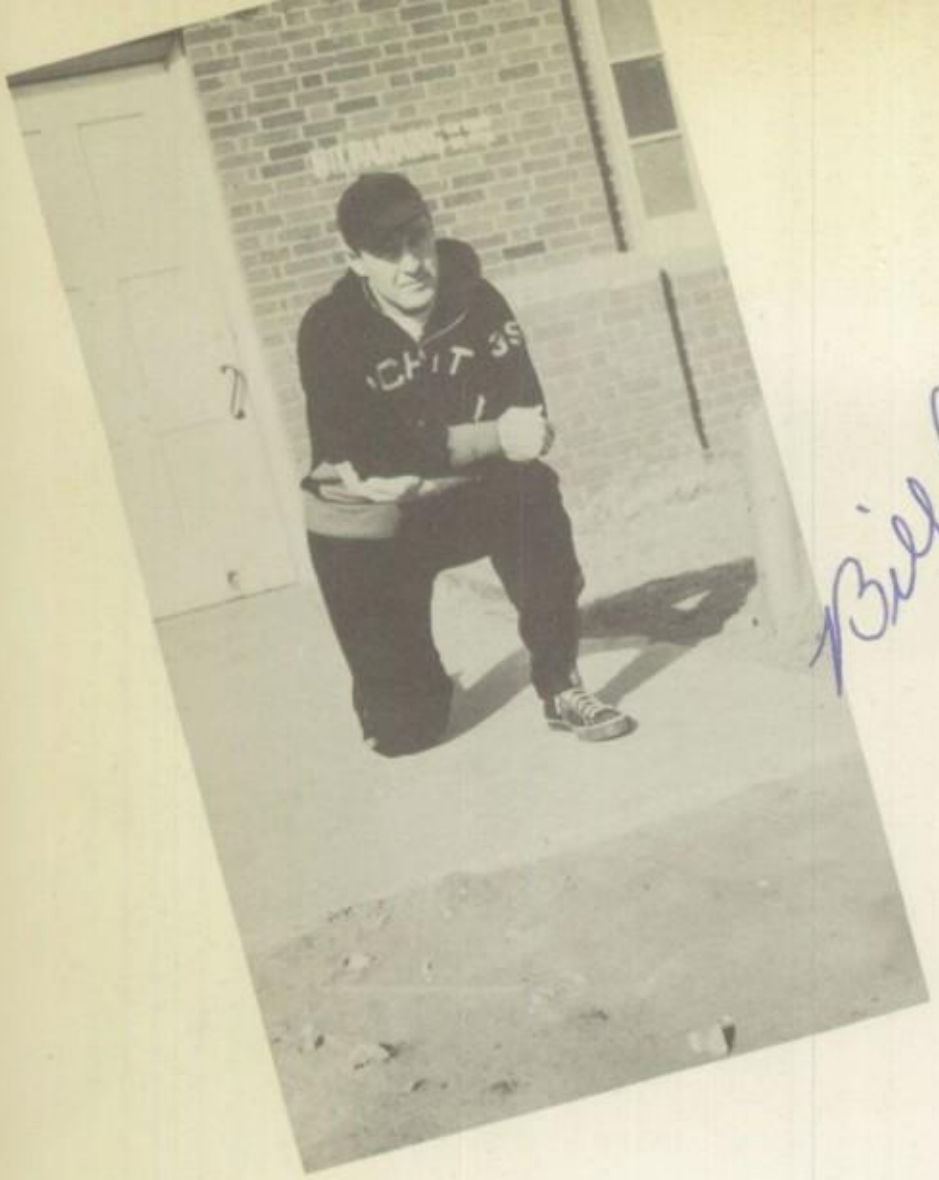
SPORTS

Coaches



BILL ALLEN

One of the most versatile of the Coyote coaches is Bill Allen. He assists Coach Jefferies with the "A" squad during football season, and he coaches the "B" squad basketball team. In the spring he serves as head track coach. Mr. Allen is very popular with the players, and he has a bright future ahead of him.

TED L. JEFFERIES

Not only did Coach Jefferies win eight of eleven games played, but he also piloted the Coyotes to their second district championship in four years. His proven knowledge of football, as well as his knack of handling the players, accounts for his success.

A. D. BECK

Coach Beck is Rowdie mentor, chief scout, and head basketball coach at WFSH. Although both the Rowdies and the basketball team lacked experience, Beck guided them to numerous victories. His most outstanding accomplishment was that of guiding his basketeers to victory in the Big Six Conference.

Presentation

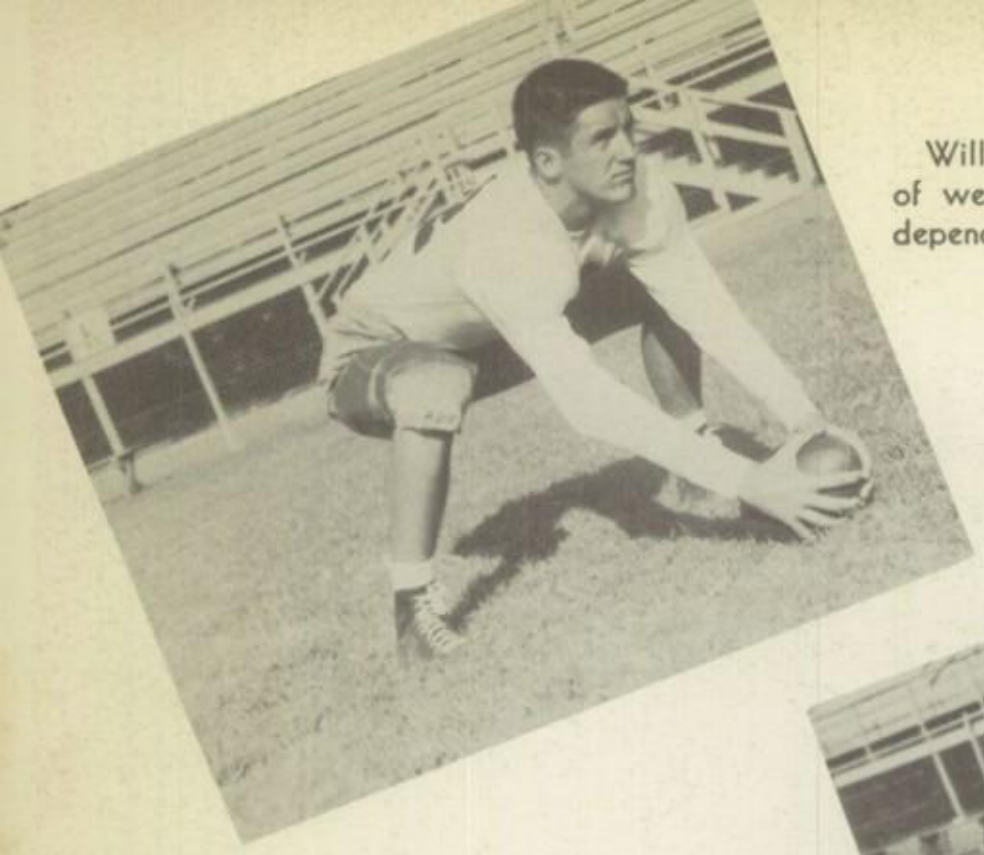
The Staff is pleased to reserve the following section of the yearbook in honor of the District 2 A-A Champions, the Wichita Falls Coyotes.

Besides attaining the championship in 1940, the Coyotes have held this distinction before—first in 1935 and again in 1937. Winning the district title for three years enables WFSH to keep the cup as a permanent possession.

The donor of the cup, Mr. Linton Estes, presents the district trophy to Coach Ted Jefferies during the annual football banquet.

The picture of the entire squad was taken immediately after the Burkburnett game which clinched the district title for the pack.

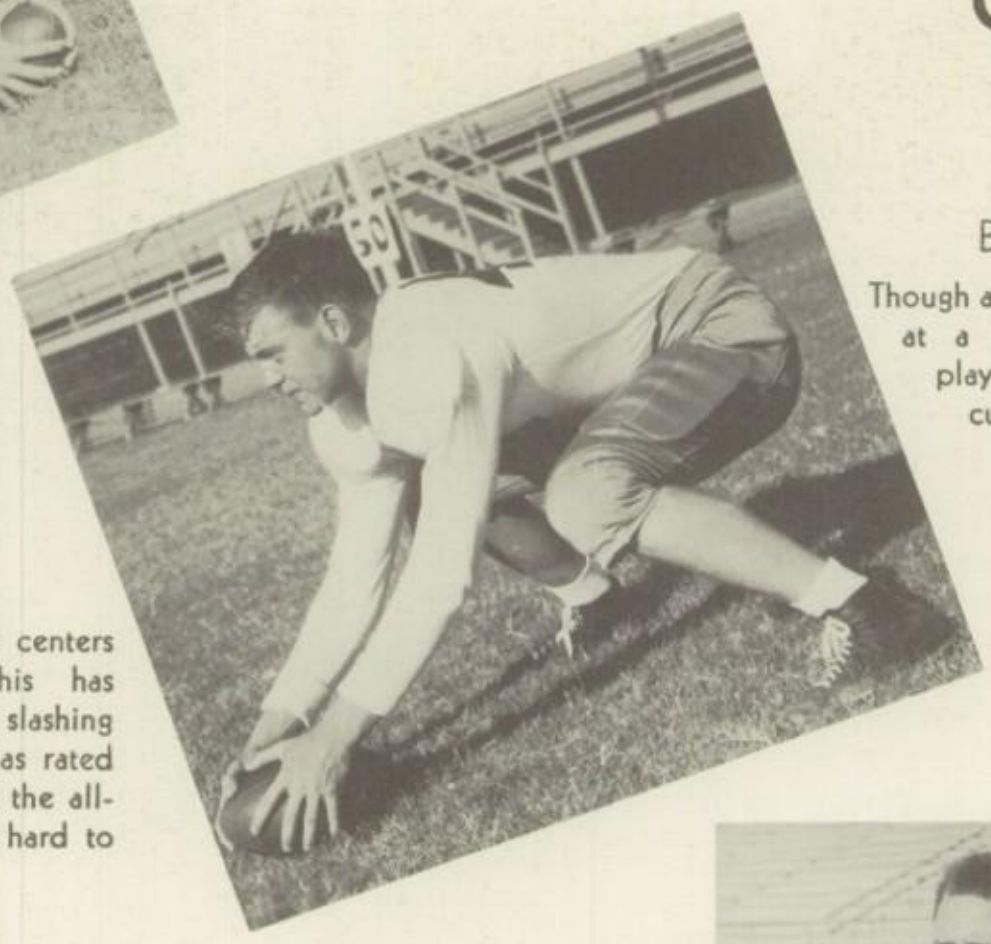
A Smile of Victory.



WILLIS CATES

Willis was another fine center who was handicapped by lack of weight. However, when he did play, he proved himself dependable. This is his last year.

Centers

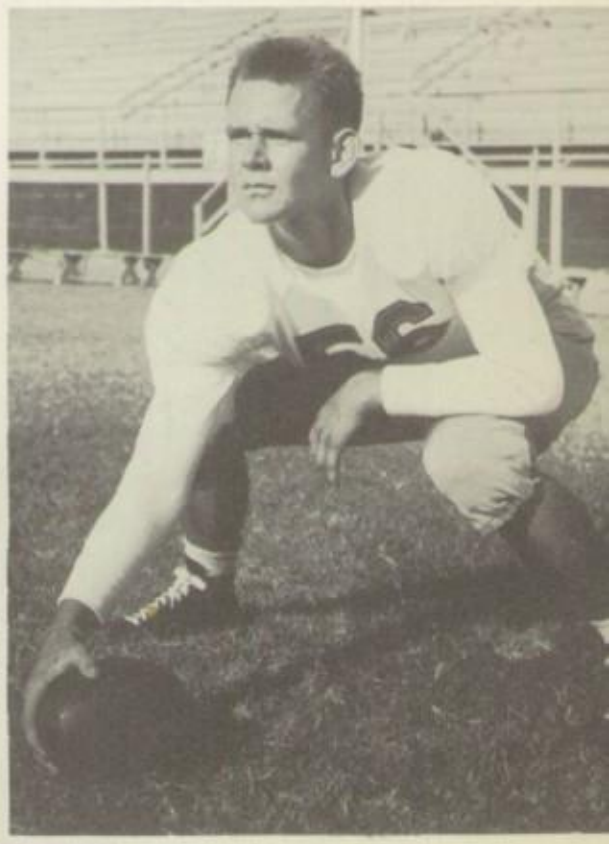


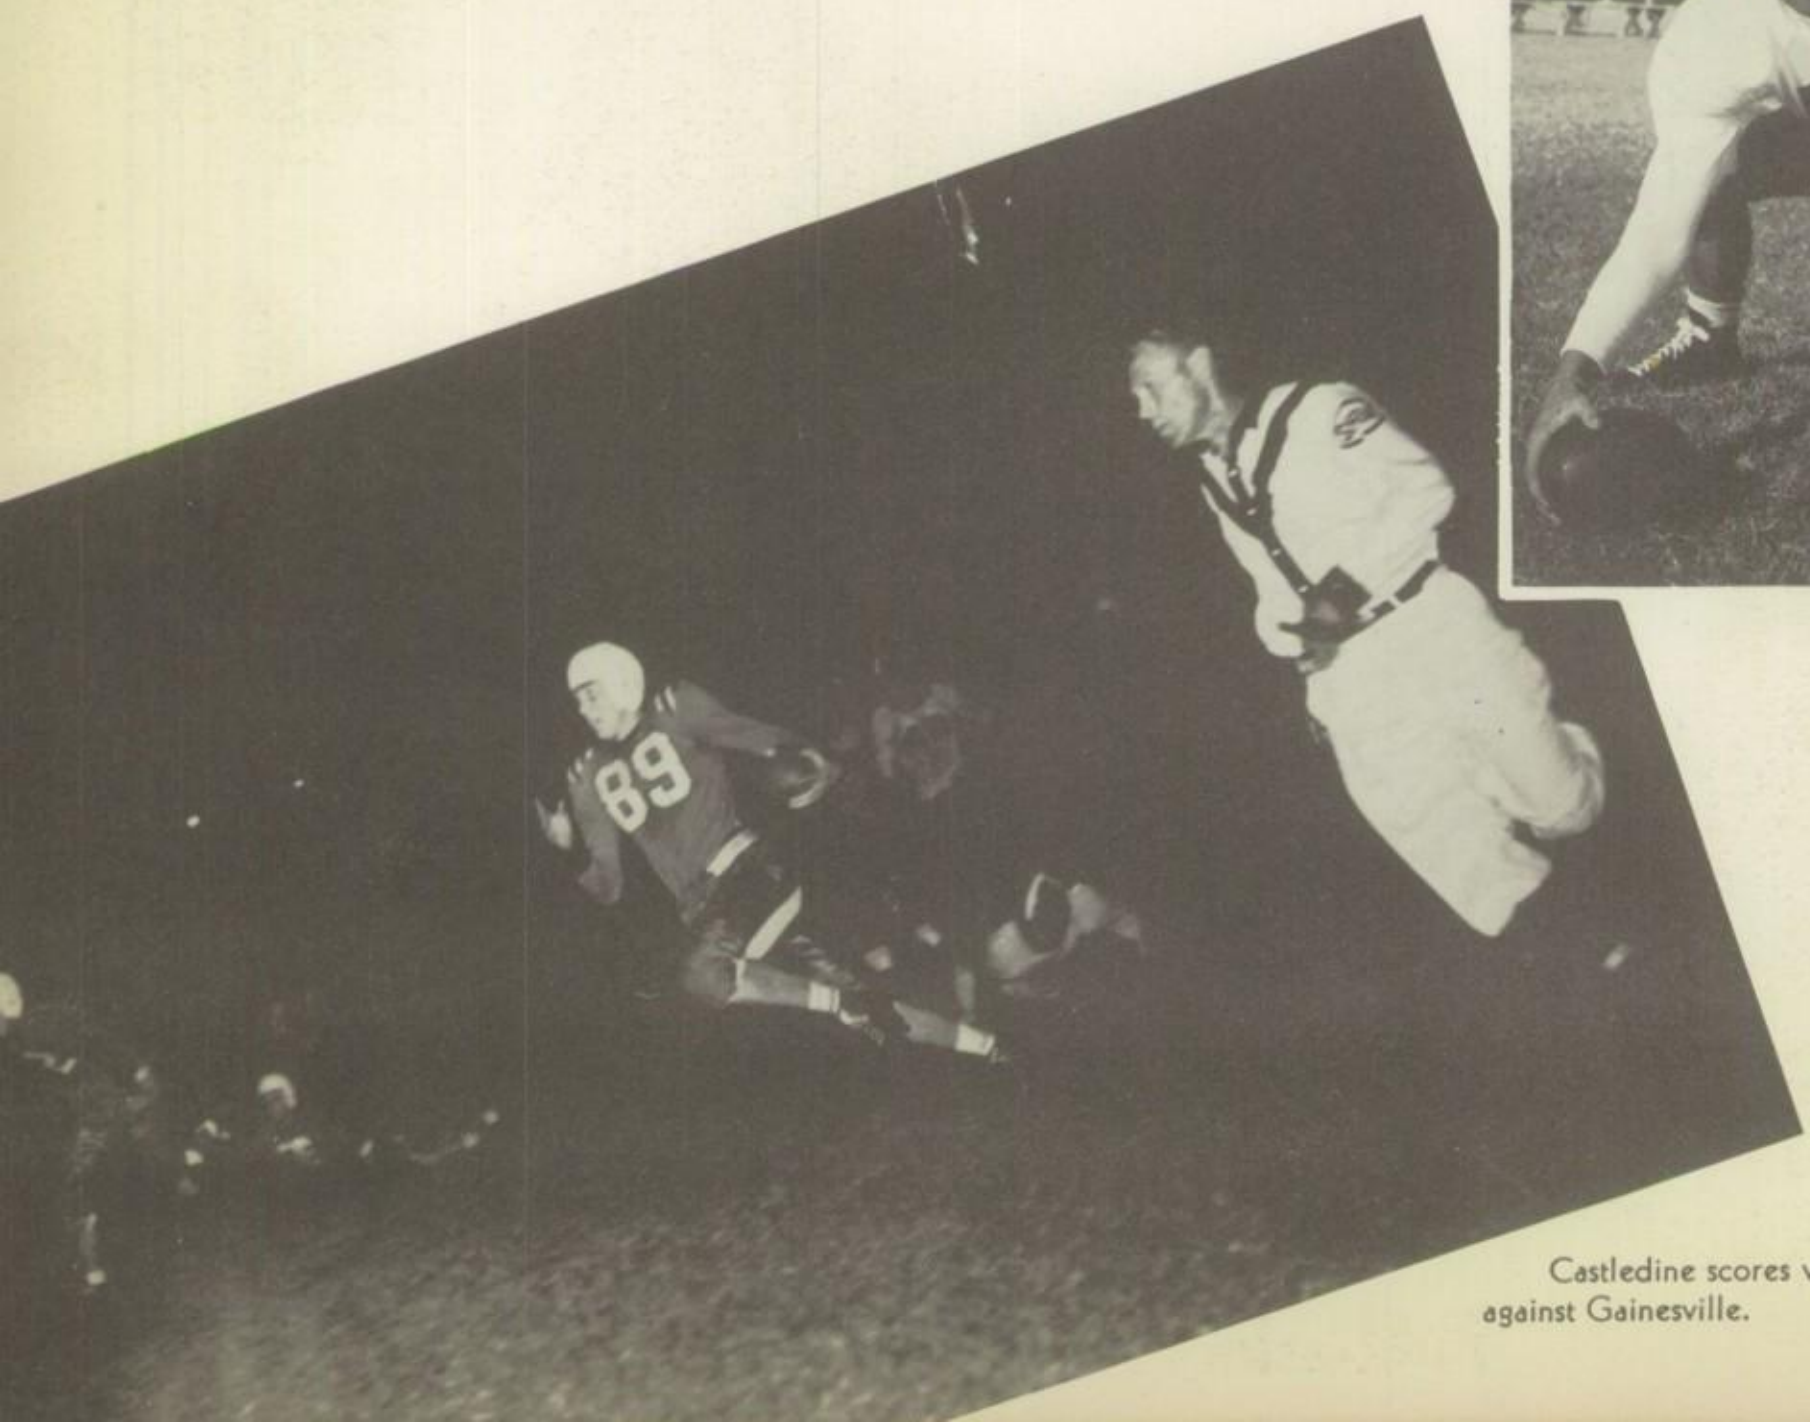
BILL BOLLING

Though a capable center, Bill wa at a disadvantage since h played the position oc cupied by Castledine. De spite this, he played i nearly every game.

JIMMY CASTLEDINE

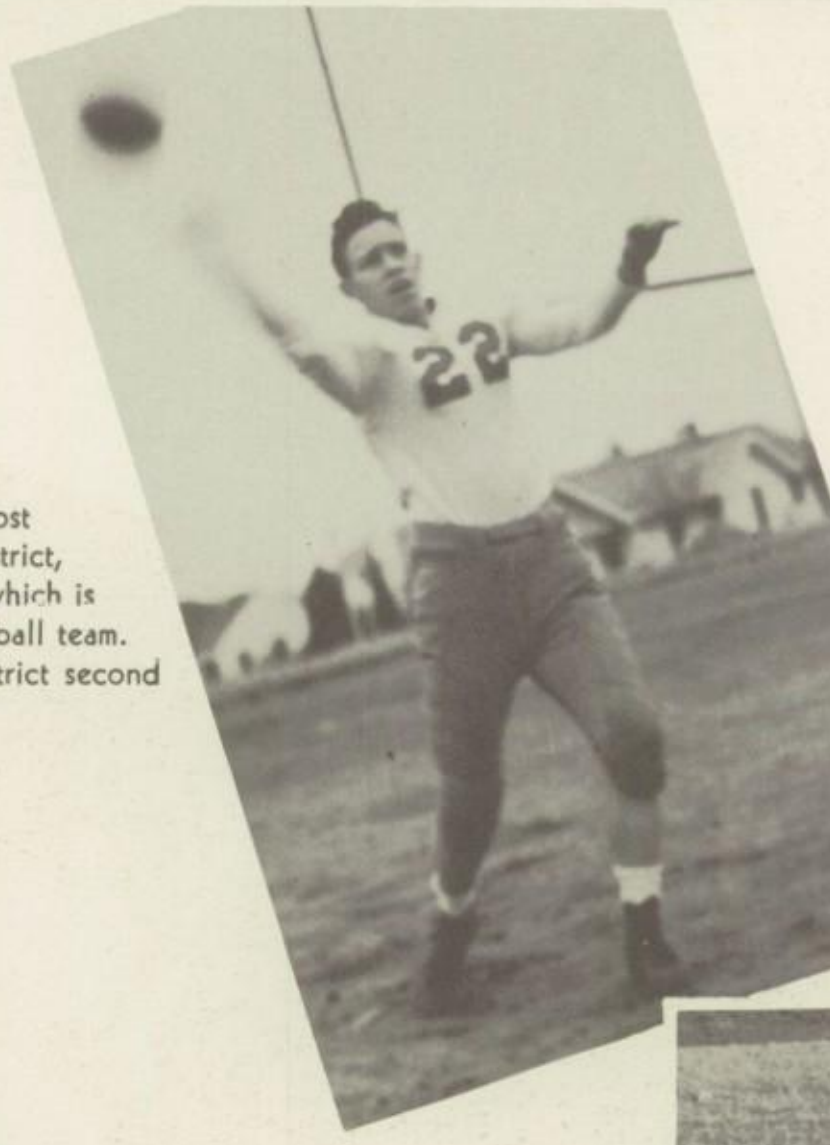
It is said that WFSH has had good centers throughout its football history. This has certainly been true in 1940. Jimmy's slashing tackles and heads-up defensive play has rated him the best in the district. He made the all-district first team. His place will be hard to fill next year.





Castledine scores winning touchdown against Gainesville.

Bell and Arthur lead the pack to their first victory in fifteen years on the Vernon field.



BILL BELL

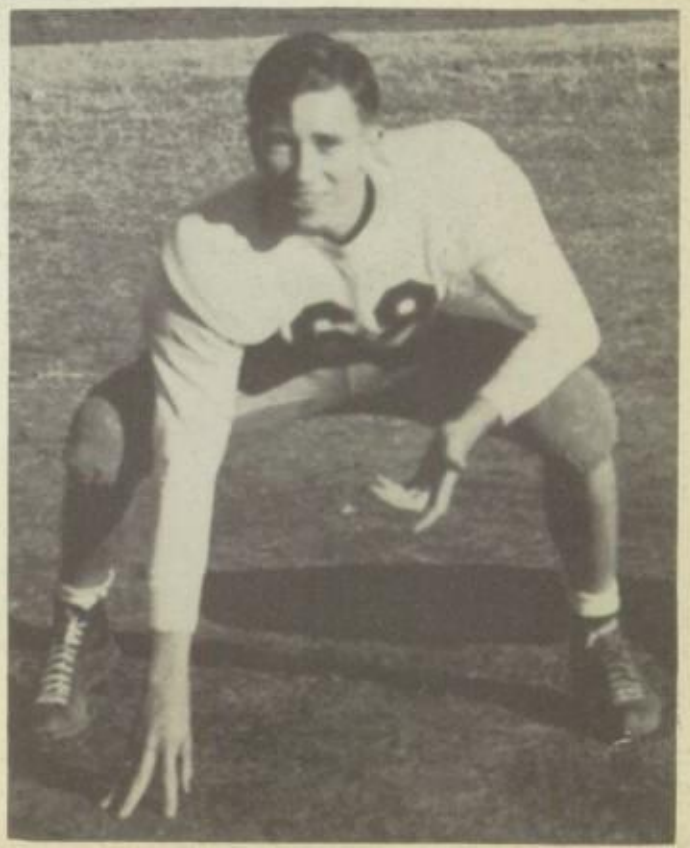
Besides being one of the most feared line-plungers in the district, Bill helped supply that spirit which is so essential to a winning football team. He was placed on the all-district second team. Bill finishes this year.

BILLY ANDERSON

"Two gun," as he was called by his team-mates, was very valuable as a substitute at the tailback post. He was especially adept at pass defense. This is his last year.

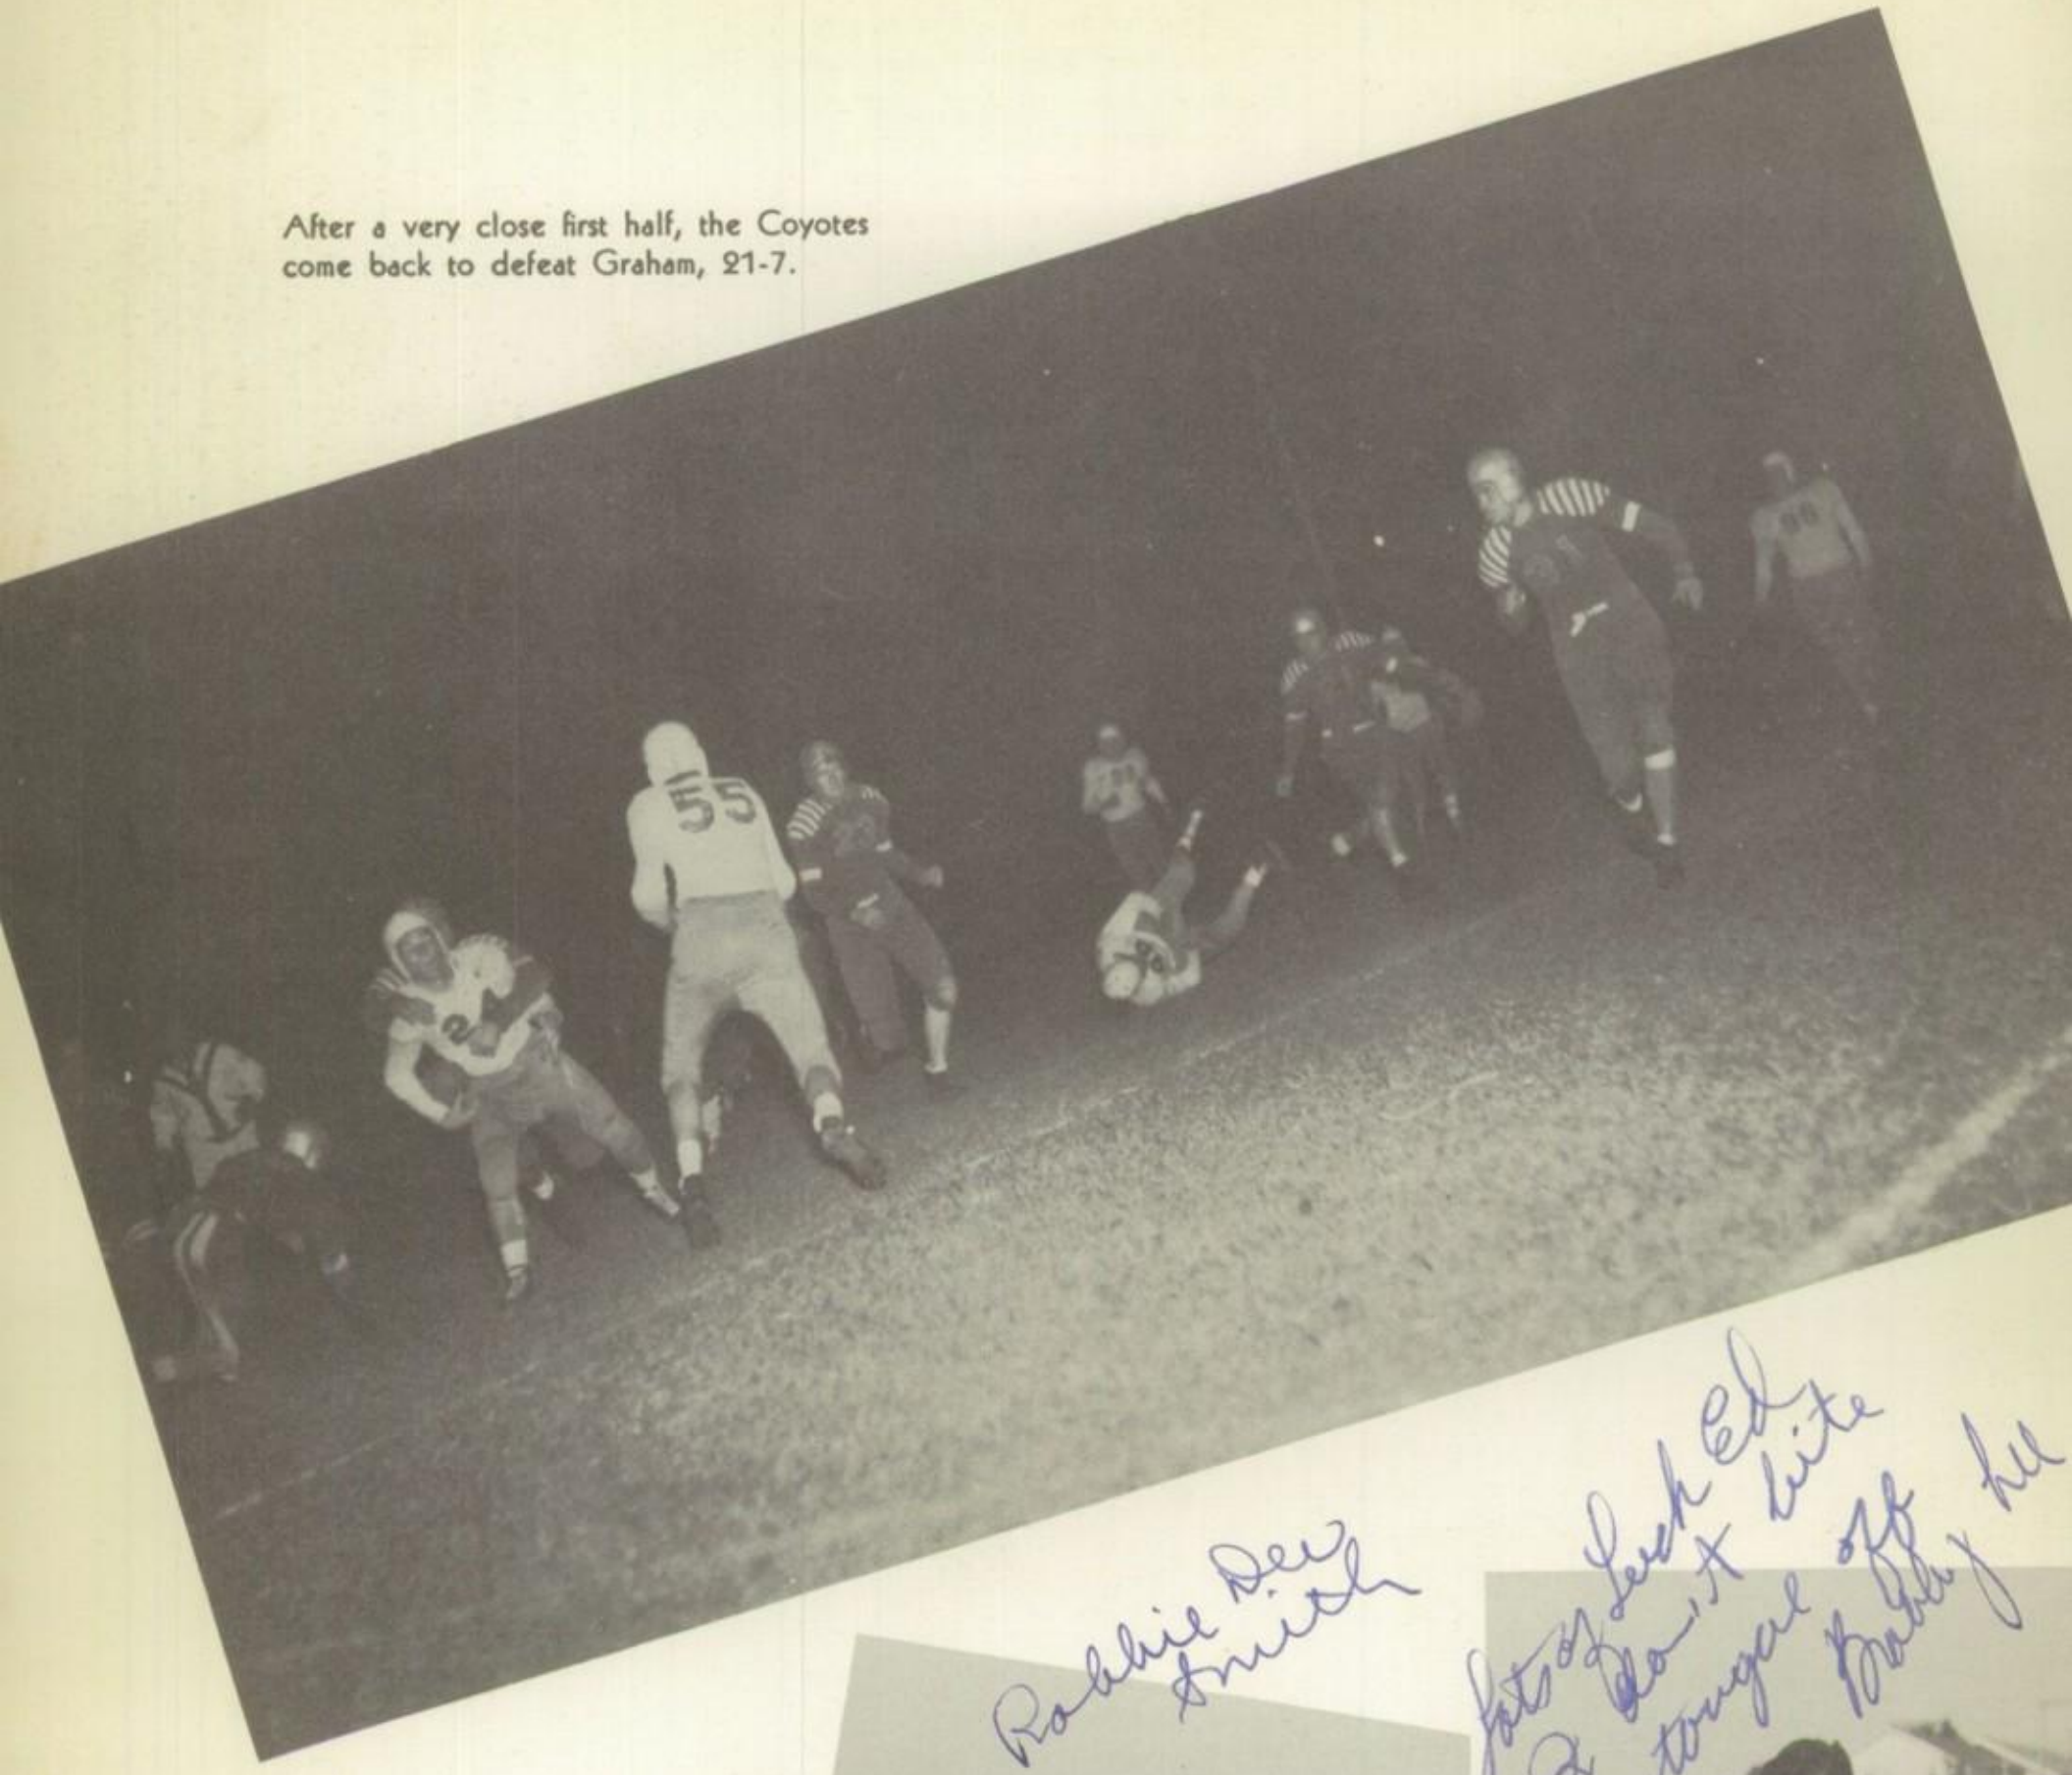
JACK PARKER

Having to compete against the veteran Bill Bell, fullback Jack Parker did not play very much; but he proved to be very capable when he did play. Though a senior, Jack has another year of eligibility.



Fullbacks

After a very close first half, the Coyotes come back to defeat Graham, 21-7.



ROBBIE DEE SMITH

Robbie Dee is one of the finest sophomore prospects in Coyote history. He is a fine punter, passer, and runner, and is fine all-district material.

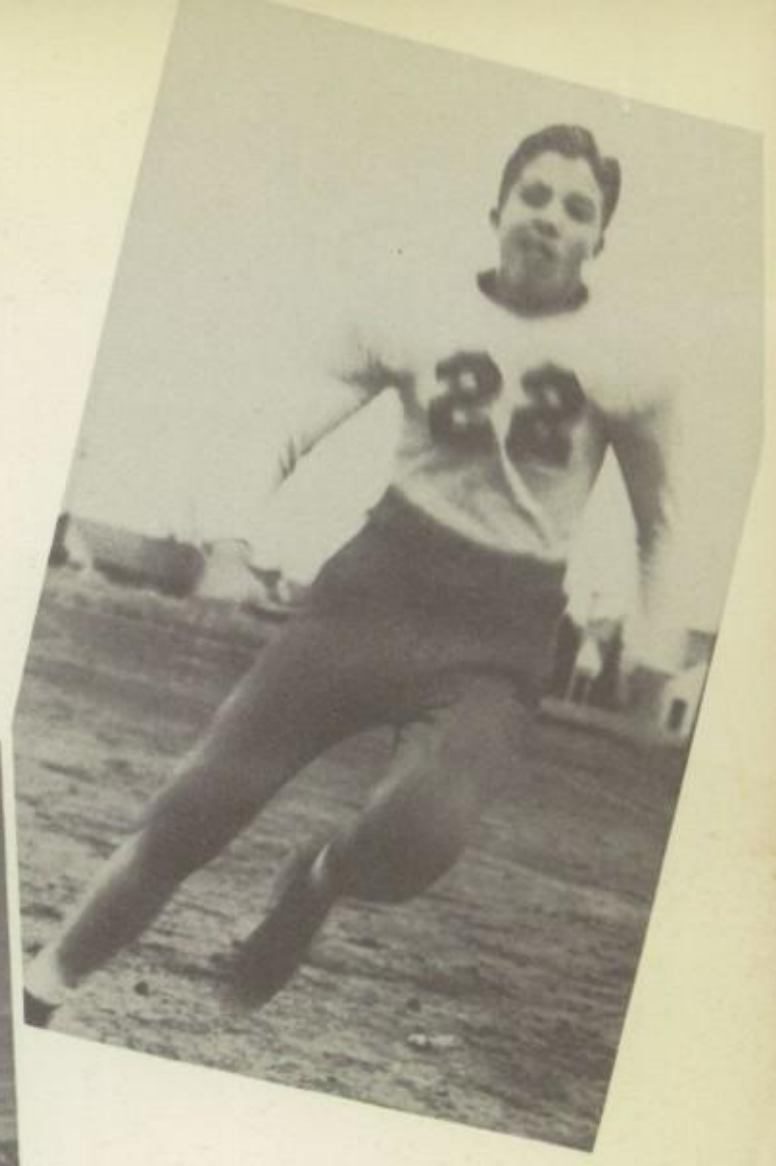
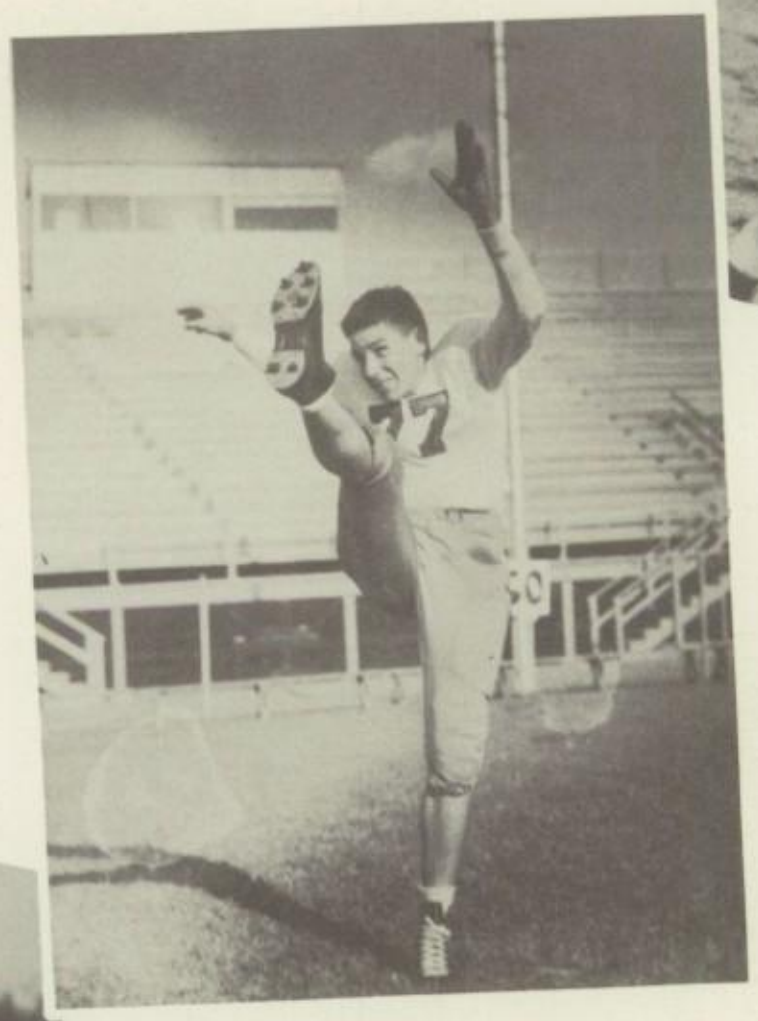
KENNETH PARKER

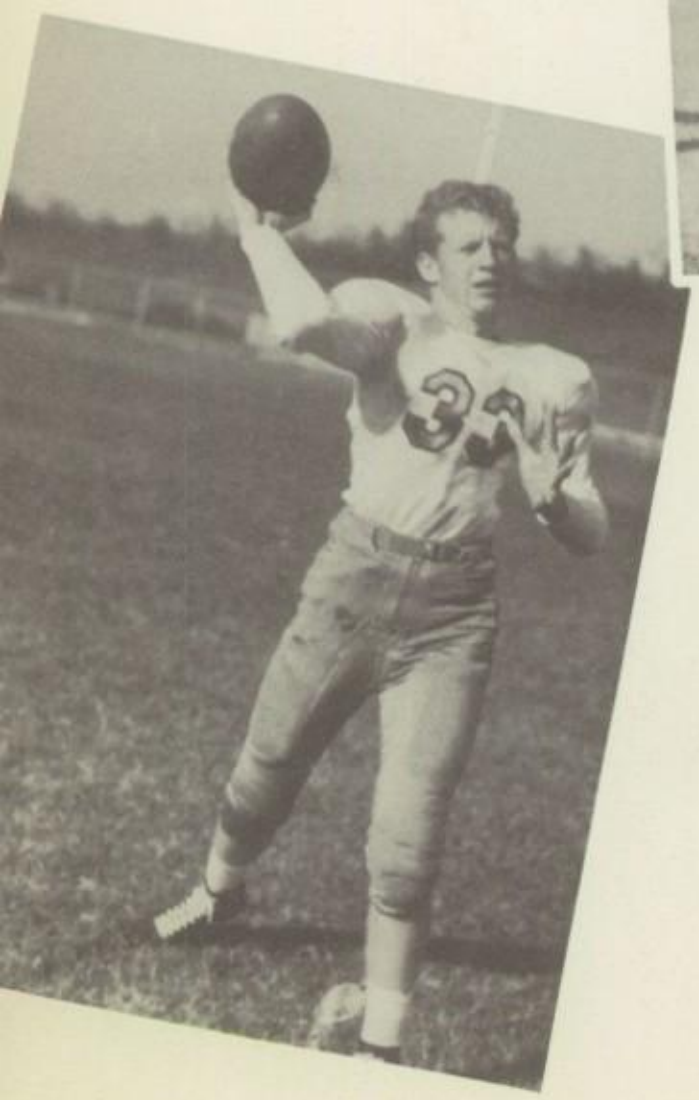
One of the Coyotes' five tailbacks was "Rabbit" Parker, who played his first year with the Coyotes this season. Kenneth is a good runner and passer, and he will be back next season to make a better name for himself.





ELLIS ORT

Probably the best punter on the team was quarterback Ellis Ort. Ellis was not a starting player, but he was a good passer, a hard-driving runner, and a good blocker. Ellis graduates this year.



GENE HILL

Gene is a junior who started practically every game this year. He called signals, passed, kicked, and executed runs very effectively. He played the very important tailback position under the Coyote system. He made the second team all-district and is one of the few who will be back next year.

BOBBY LEE SMITH

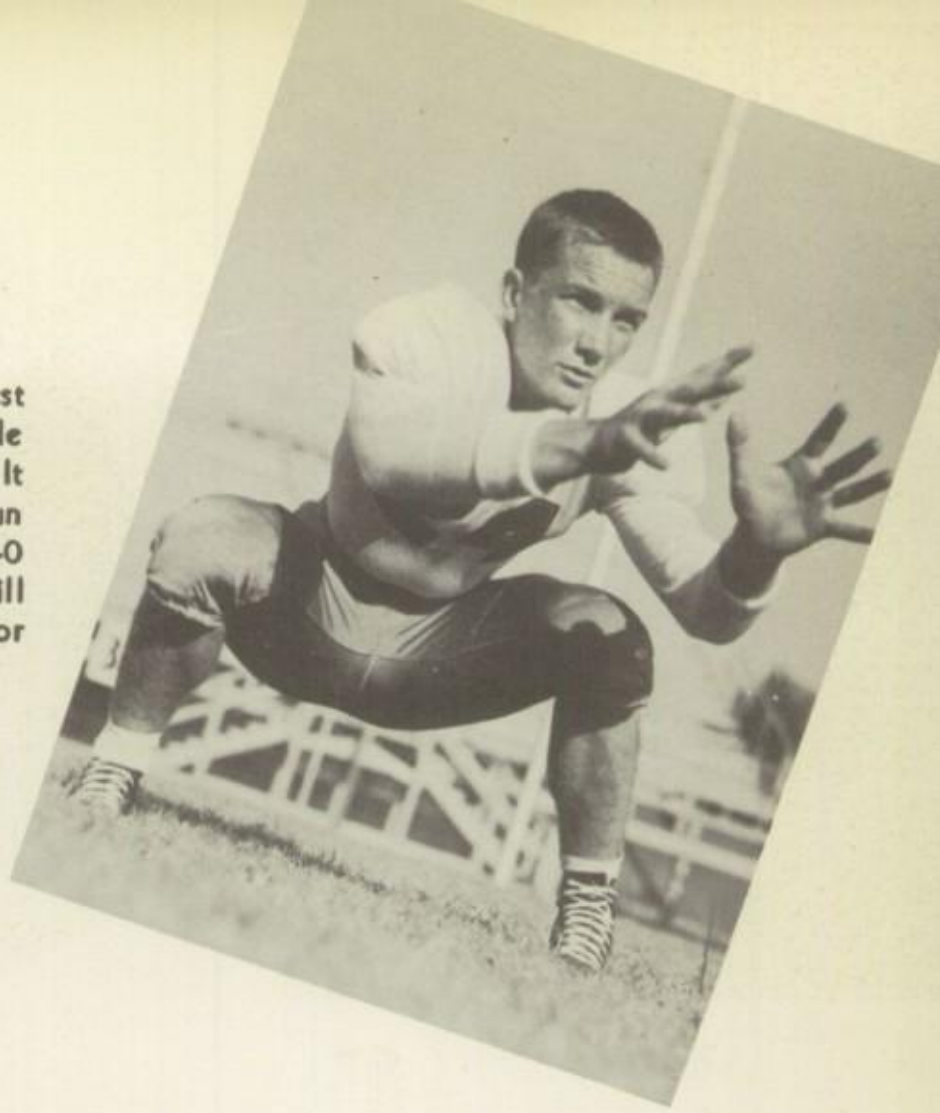
Bobby Lee, the other half of the Smith twins, is also a back and a good one. Despite the fact that he was only a sophomore, he played in nearly every game.

Tailbacks

Halfbacks

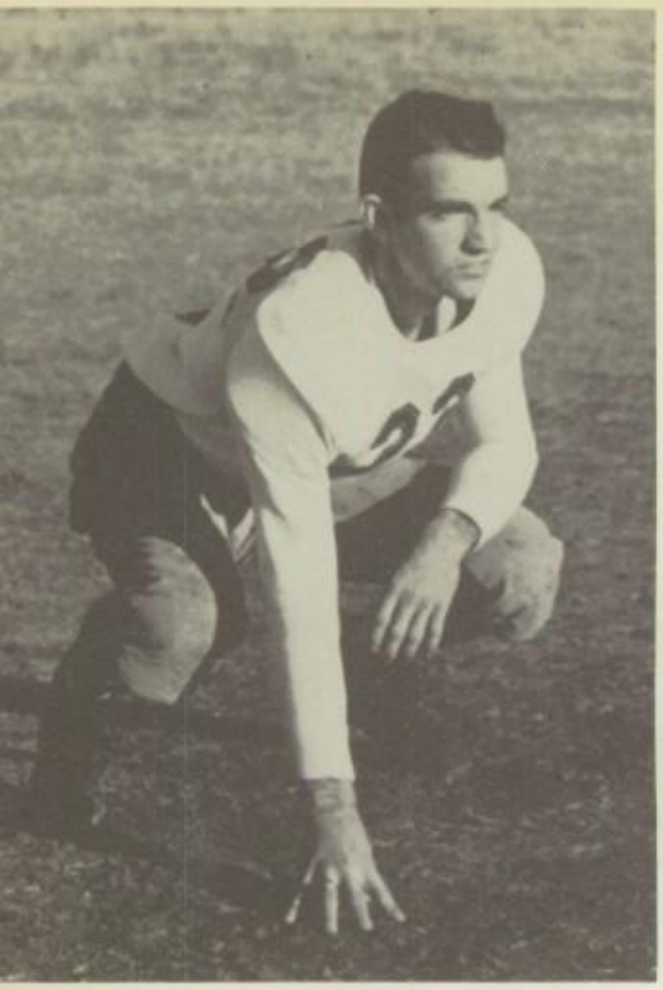
TOM BILL ARTHUR

Tom Bill was one of the best backs in the district. He made the all-district second team. It was Arthur's twenty-five-yard run that gave the Coyotes a 6-0 victory over Childress. Tom Bill has played his last game for WFSH.



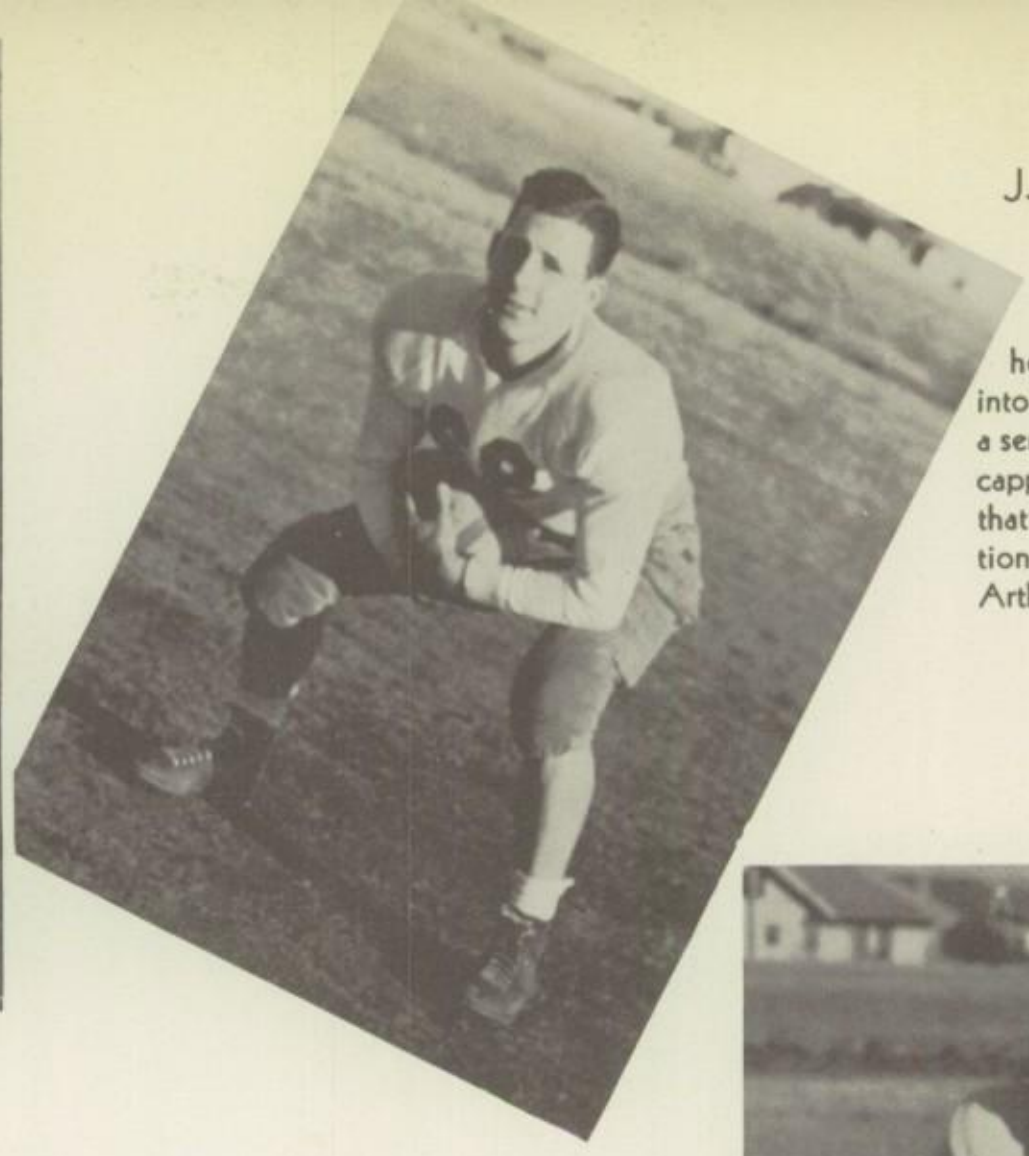
A very enthusiastic and hopeful group of Coyotes went to Amarillo; however, their dreams of the state championship were shattered to the tune of 42-7.

Arthur scores the lone touchdown for Coyotes.



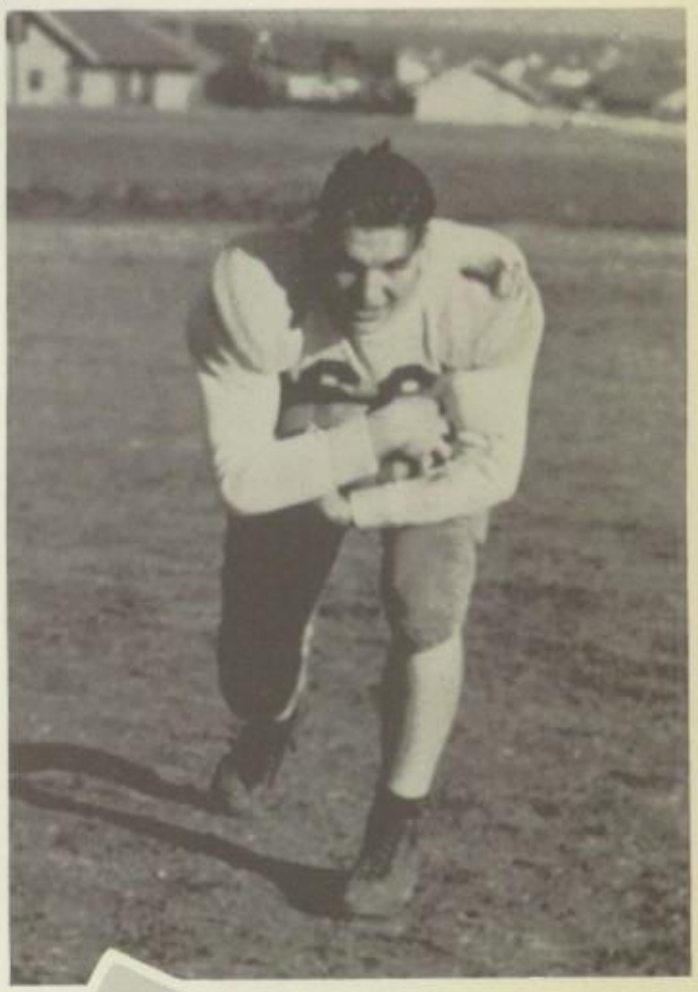
BARNEY BROWN

One of the veterans on the squad was halfback Barney Brown. He was a good runner and a sure tackler, besides being very fast. Barney will be good college material next year.



J. P. GRAVES

Although this was J. P.'s first year of football, he frequently broke into the lineup. He is a senior who was handicapped by the fact that he played the position of halfback with Arthur.

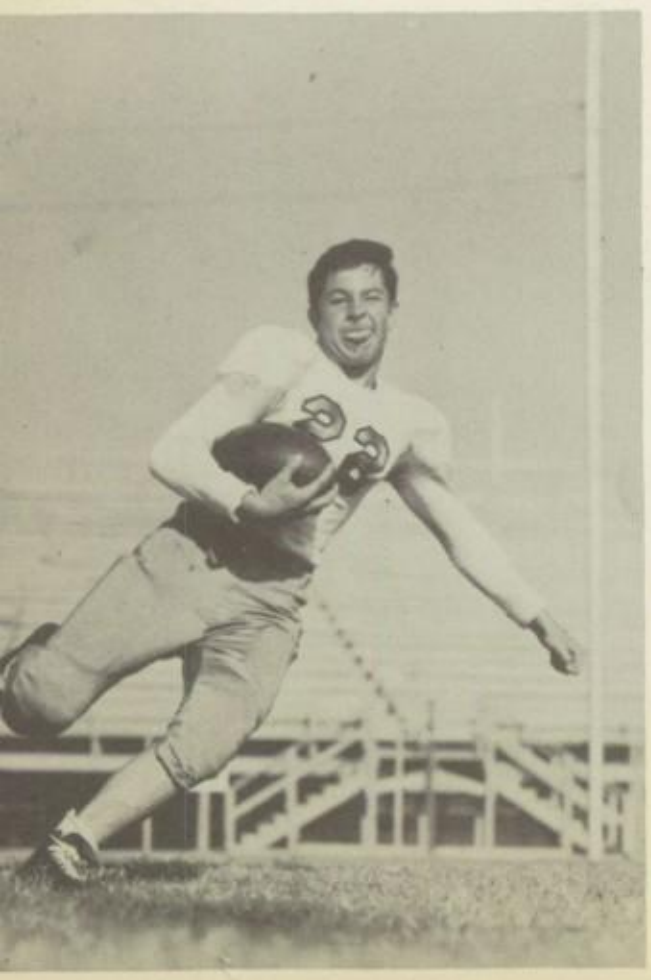


ROBERT MARSHALL

Playing his first year of football with the Coyotes, halfback Robert Marshall became a first string player, alternating with Charley Hair at halfback. A hip injury kept him out of several games in midseason, but he earned his rank as a driving runner and one of the best pass receivers on the team.

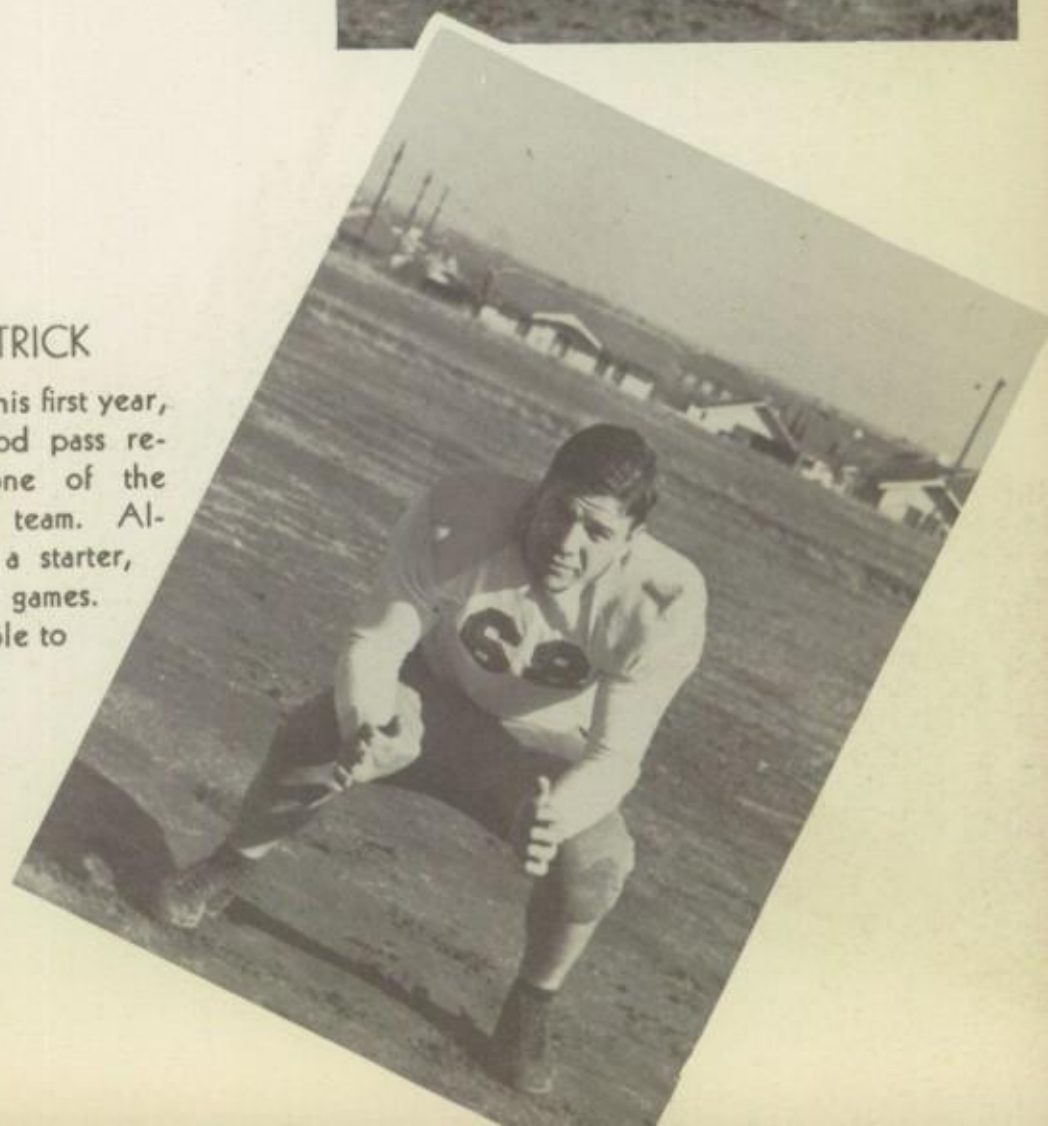
CHARLES HAIR

"The roughest man on the team for his size" was a familiar title bestowed upon halfback Charley Hair. He was particularly noted for his hard tackling and blocking, although he carried the ball very well later in the season. Charley is one of the two starting players who will lead the Coyotes next sesaon, and Coach Jefferies is depending heavily upon him.

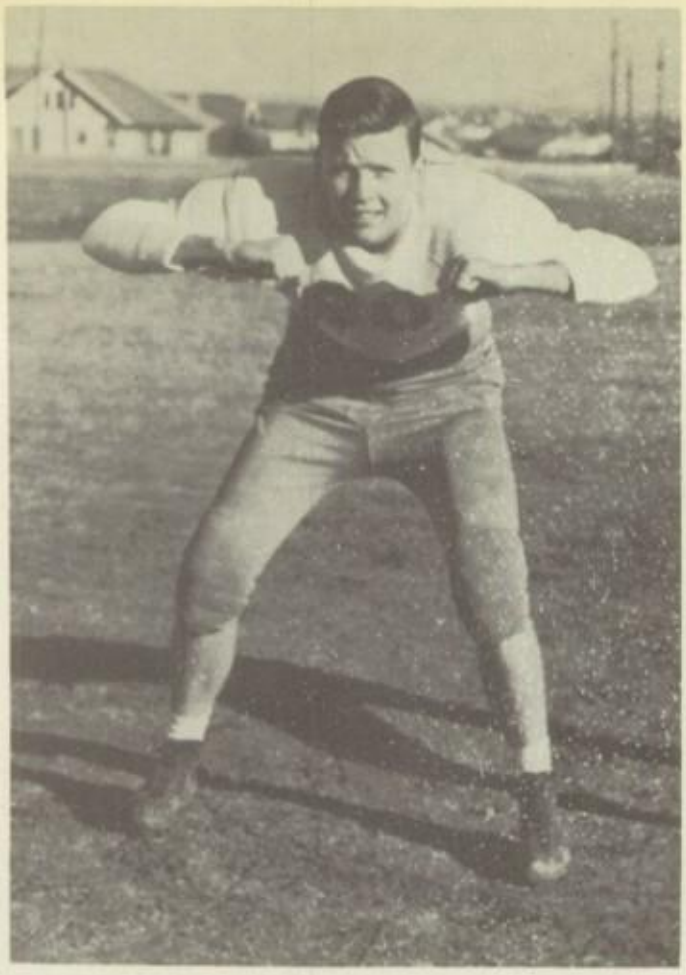


J. D. KIRKPATRICK

Halfback J. D., in his first year, proved to be a good pass receiver. He was one of the fastest men on the team. Although he was not a starter, J. D. played in many games. He will not be eligible to play another year.

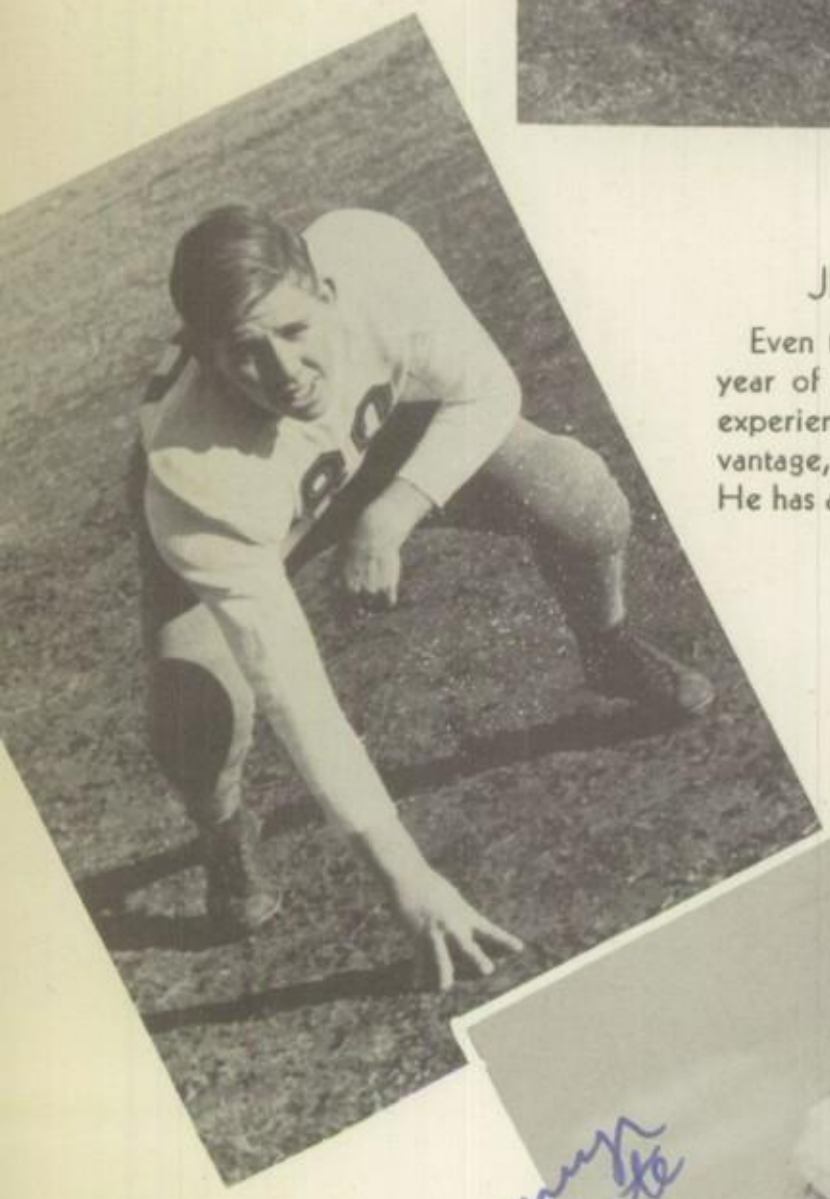


Tackles



DAVID WRIGHT

The lightest tackle on the squad was David. He did not see much service, having to compete against many veterans; however, he will be back next year. He has a good opportunity to become a regular.

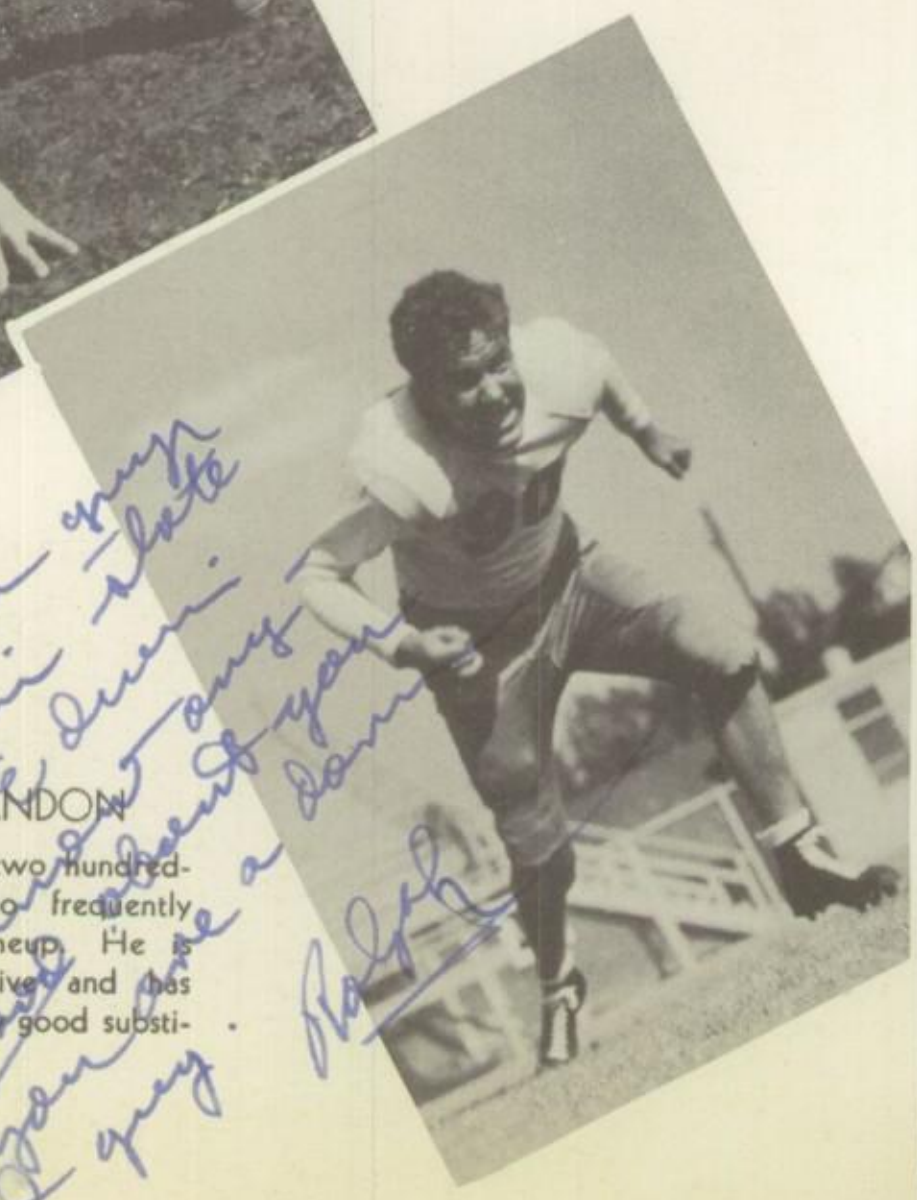


JIM HALLMARK

Even though this was Jim's first year of football, he lacked only experience. Despite this disadvantage, he was a good lineman. He has another year of eligibility.

McCHARLES HUFF

One of the three Coyotes to make the all district 2-AA team was tackle "Smokey" Huff. Big and aggressive, McCharles graduates this year. He is a good prospect for some college. Players and coaches will remember him for his keen sense of humor, as well as for his playing ability.



RALPH BRANDON

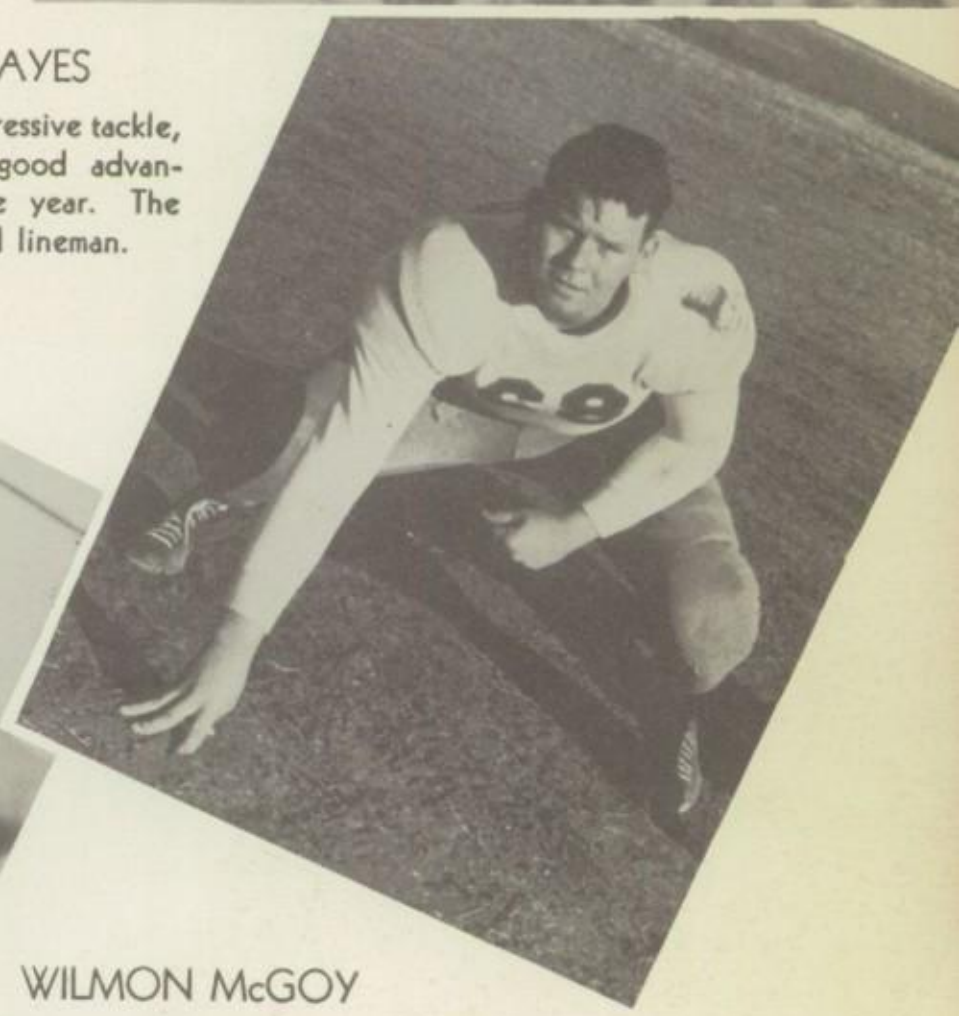
Ralph is a big, two hundred-pound tackle who frequently broke into the lineup. He is large and aggressive and has proved to be a very good substitute lineman.

FELTON WHITLOW

Although he is not so small, "little toughey" was the nickname given to tackle Felton Whitlow, presumably, after his famed brother, Kenneth "toughey" Whitlow. Felton was noted by his "heads-up" play and jarring tackles. A Coyote who made the all district 2-AA second team, Felton should make a good college player.

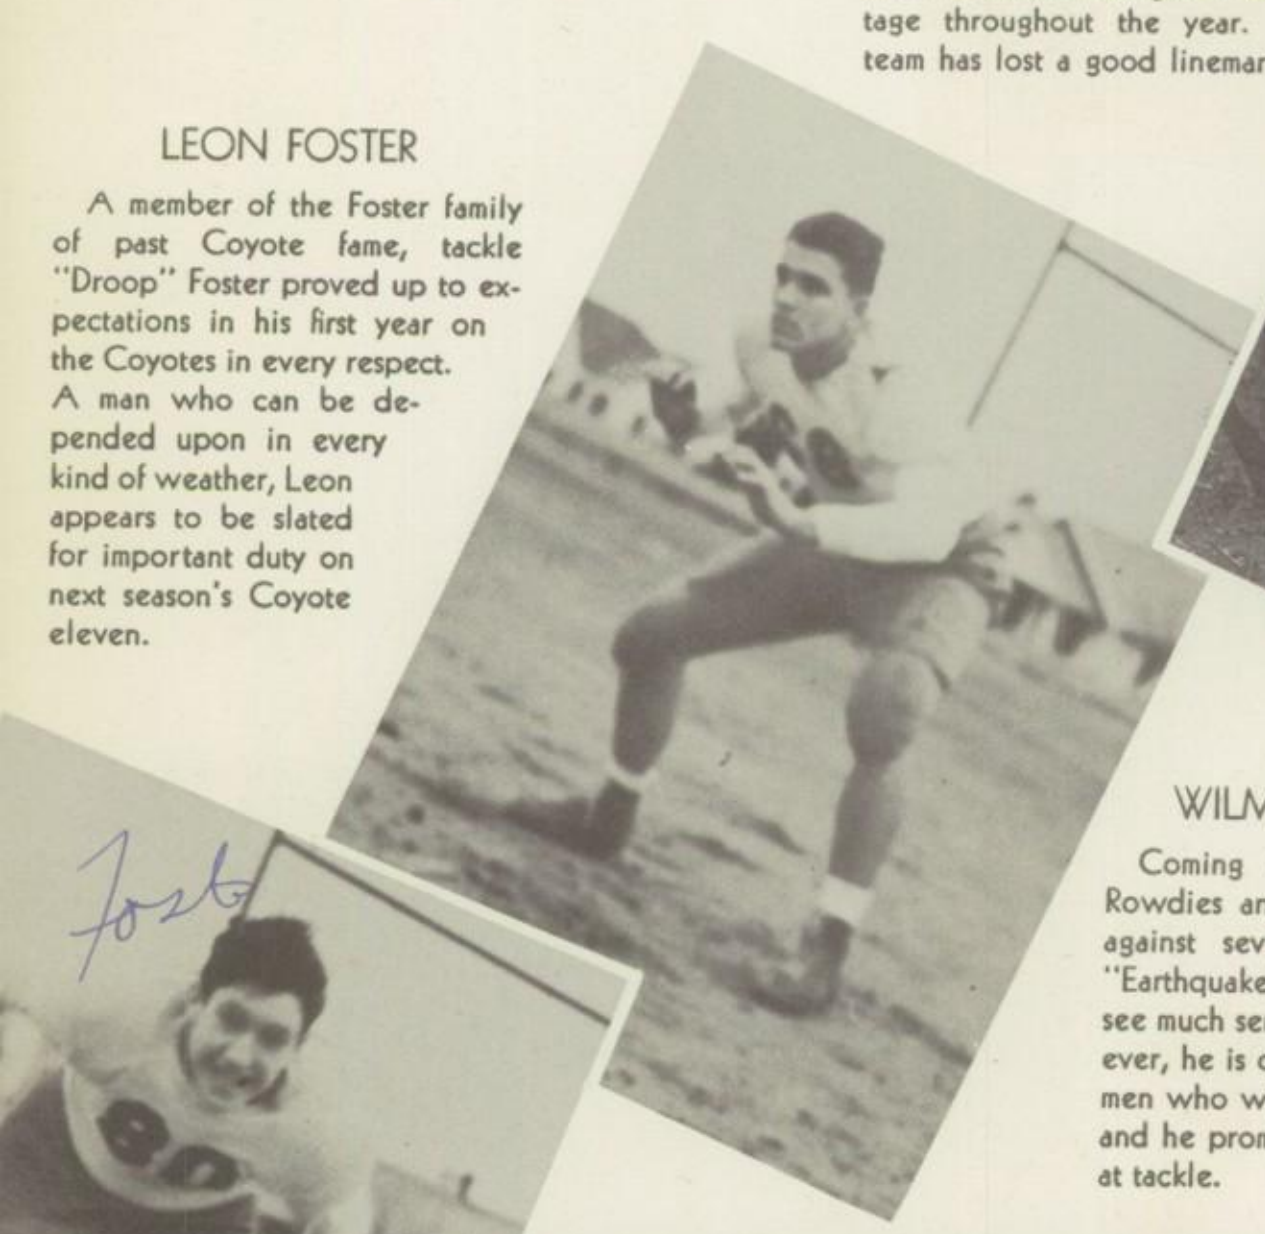
ROBERT MAYES

Robert, a fast, aggressive tackle, showed himself to good advantage throughout the year. The team has lost a good lineman.



LEON FOSTER

A member of the Foster family of past Coyote fame, tackle "Droop" Foster proved up to expectations in his first year on the Coyotes in every respect. A man who can be depended upon in every kind of weather, Leon appears to be slated for important duty on next season's Coyote eleven.



WILMON McGOY

Coming up from last year's Rowdies and having to compete against several veterans, tackle "Earthquake" McGoy did not see much service this year. However, he is one of the few squadmen who will return next season; and he promises to be a mainstay at tackle.

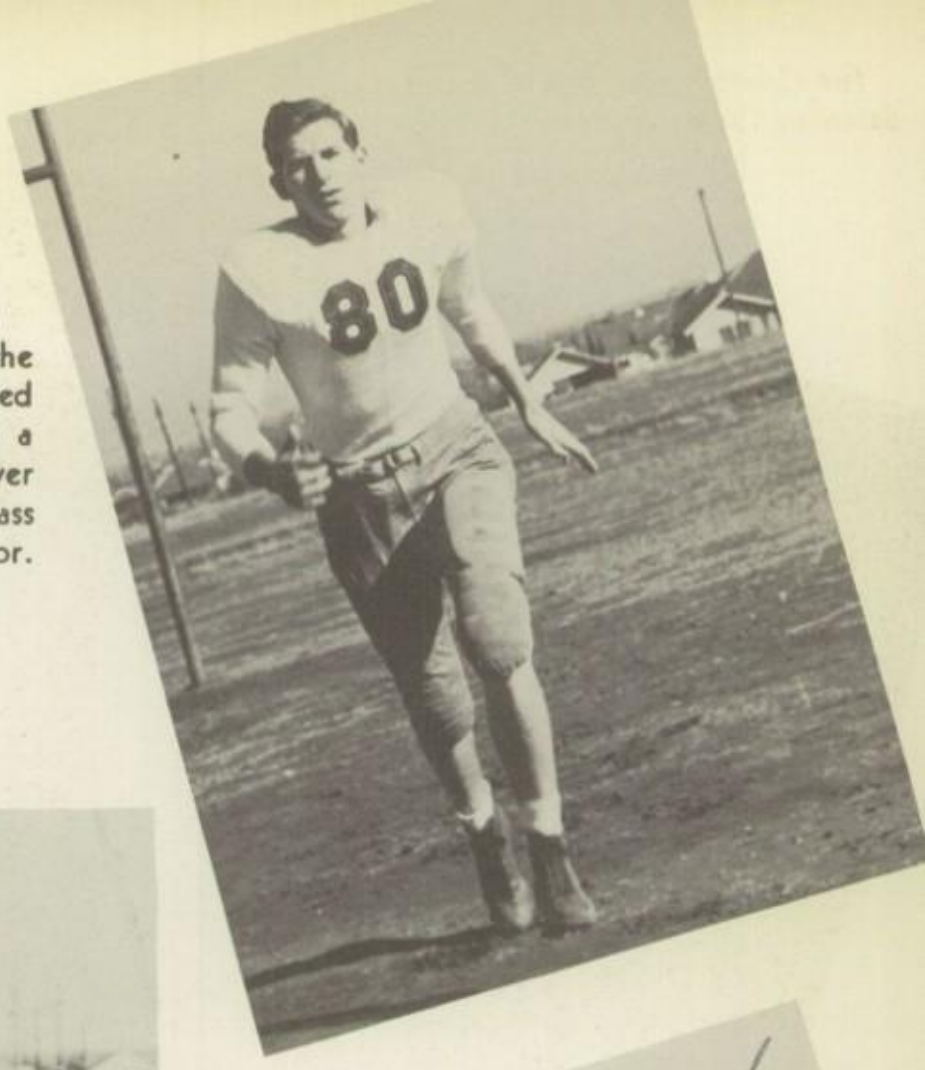
Coyotes	7
Breckenridge	20

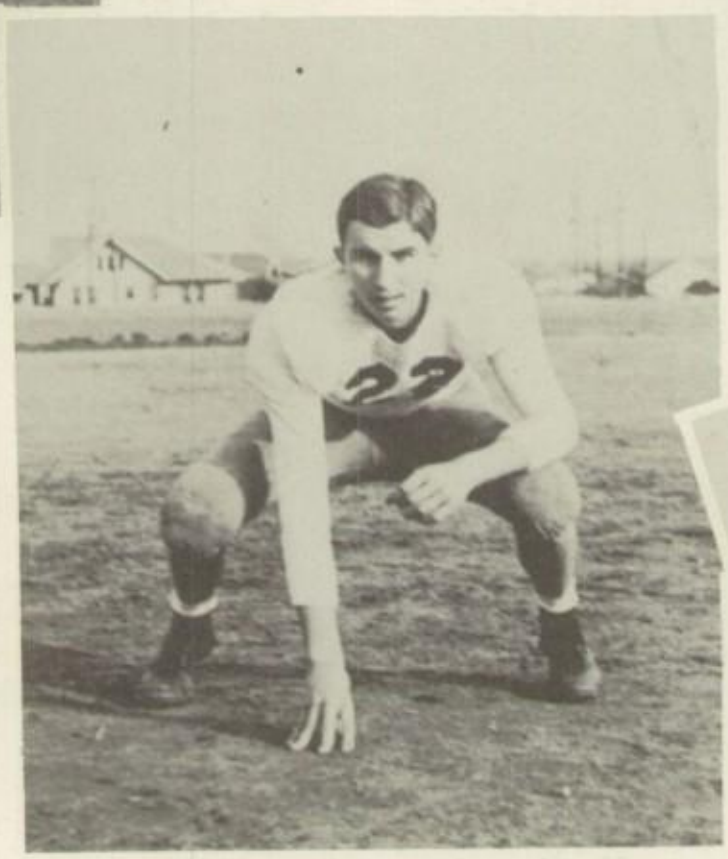
DAVID SMITH

David is a senior end, who was especially effective on defense. He has proved very valuable throughout the year as a substitute.

ORVILLE WILLIAMS

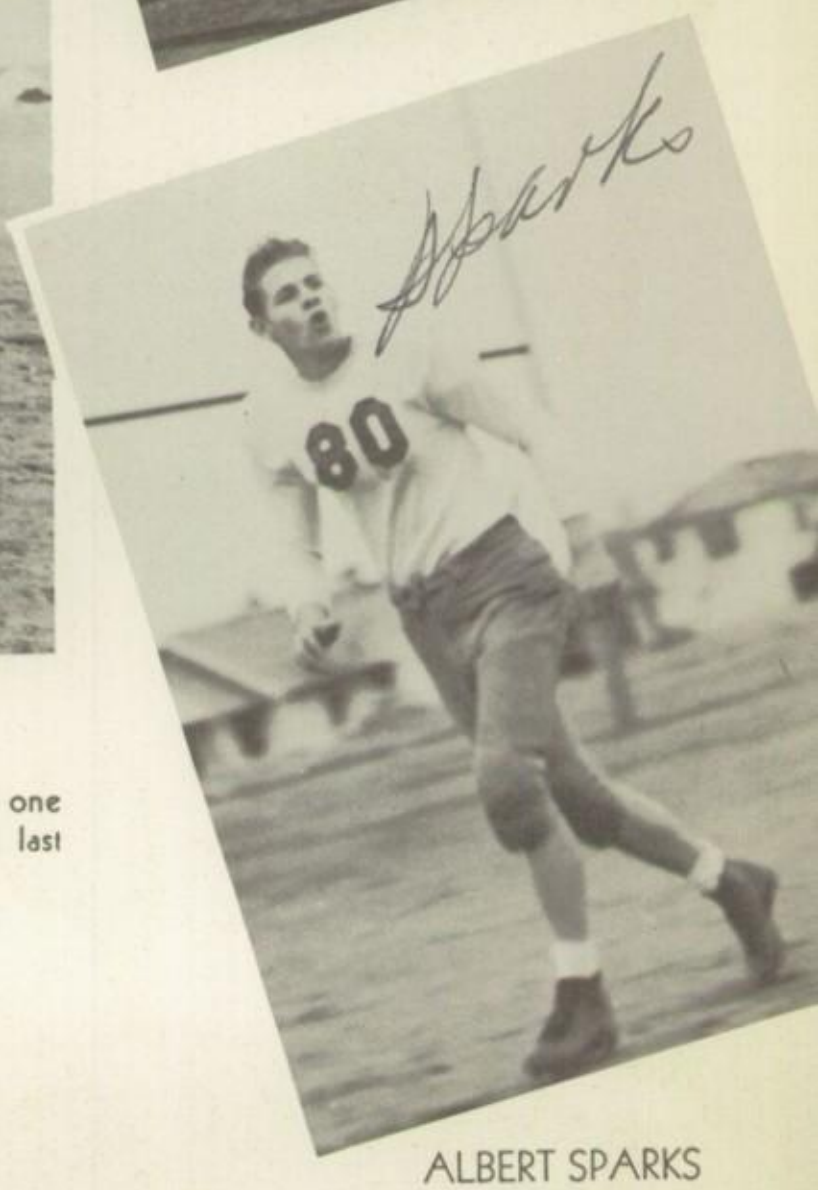
Playing his first year on the Coyotes, end Orville did not see much service until late in the season; but he played very well. He was a good defensive player as well as a good pass receiver. He is a senior.





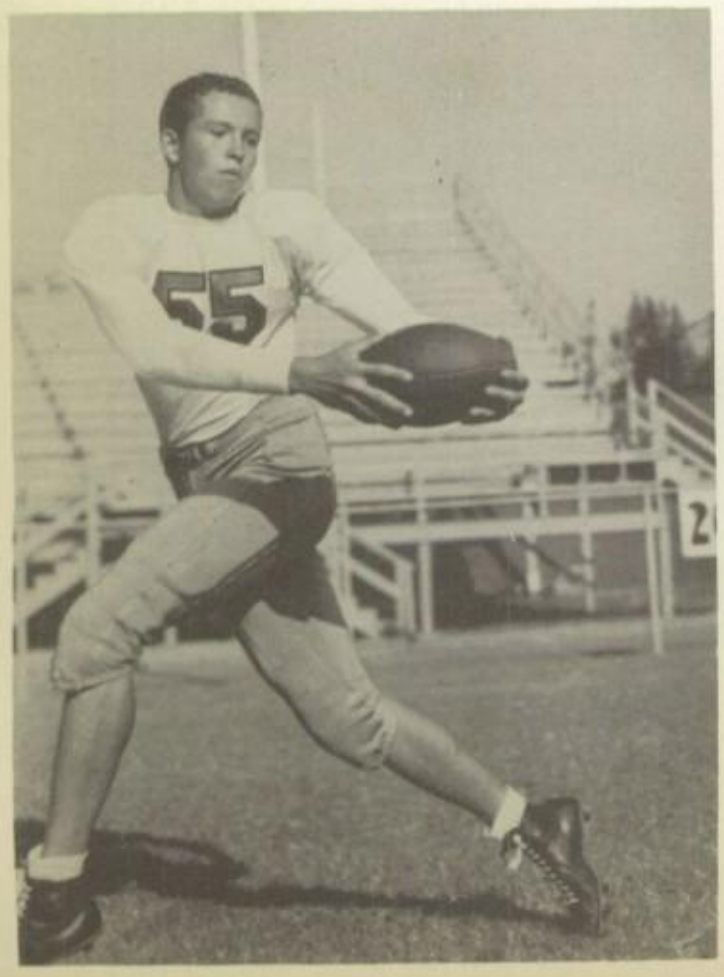
PHILLIPS CUNNINGHAM

Phillips, "6 foot 4" wingman, lacked only one thing—experience. This was his first and last year of football at WFSH since he is a senior.



ALBERT SPARKS

In this, his first year on the A-squad, Albert did not get to prove his entire capability, having to compete against Captain Max Bumgardner; but he played excellent football when given a chance. He graduates this year.



MAX BUMGARDNER

Max has held the position of captain and sparkplug of the 1940 Coyotes. He played an end position so well that he was placed on the all district first team. The lean wingman was extremely effective on both offense and defense throughout the season.

Ends

The Coyotes play one of the best games of the season, defeating Olney 26-6.

BILL OGLESBY

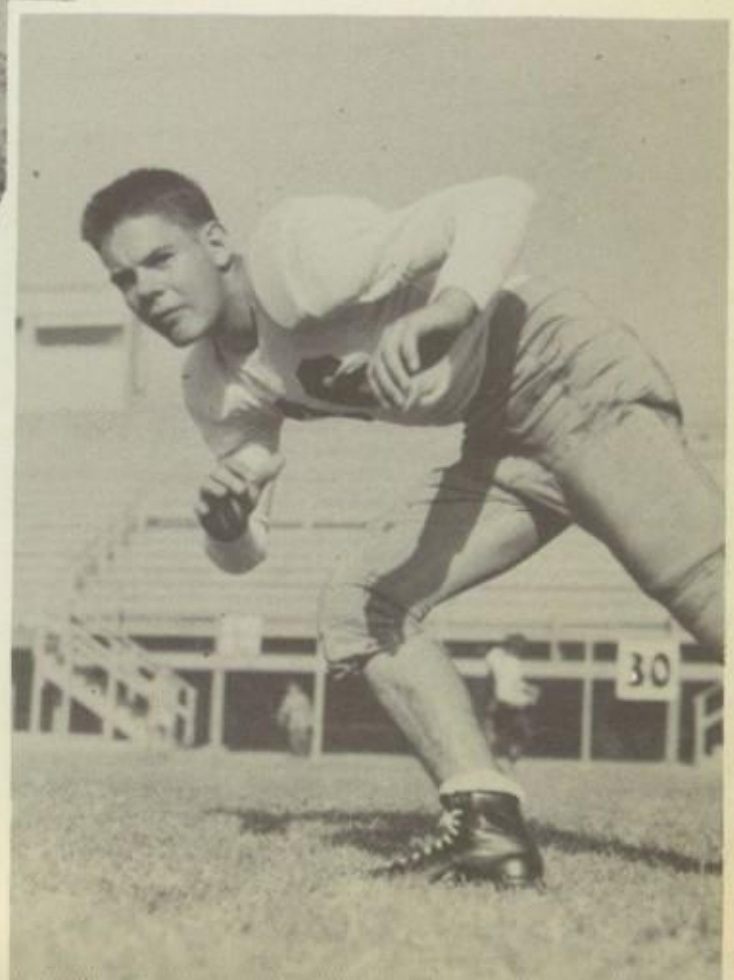
One of the most dependable players on the team, and always on the job, Bill was not in the limelight as much as his all-district team-mate at the other end position; but he received high praise from coaches and sports writers alike for his fine play at end, making the all-district 2-AA second team.

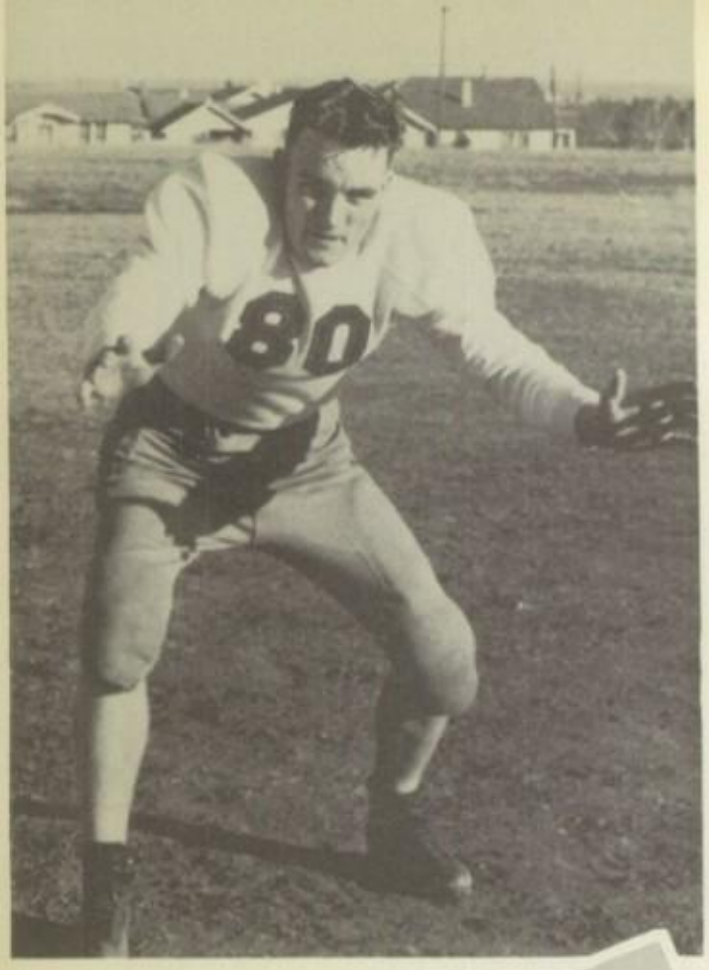
GEORGE GRINNINGER

Another Coyote that came up from the Rowdies to play on the Coyotes this year was end George Grinninger. He has played very creditably this year, and much is expected of him next season. He is one of the few returning lettermen.

R. C. WEST

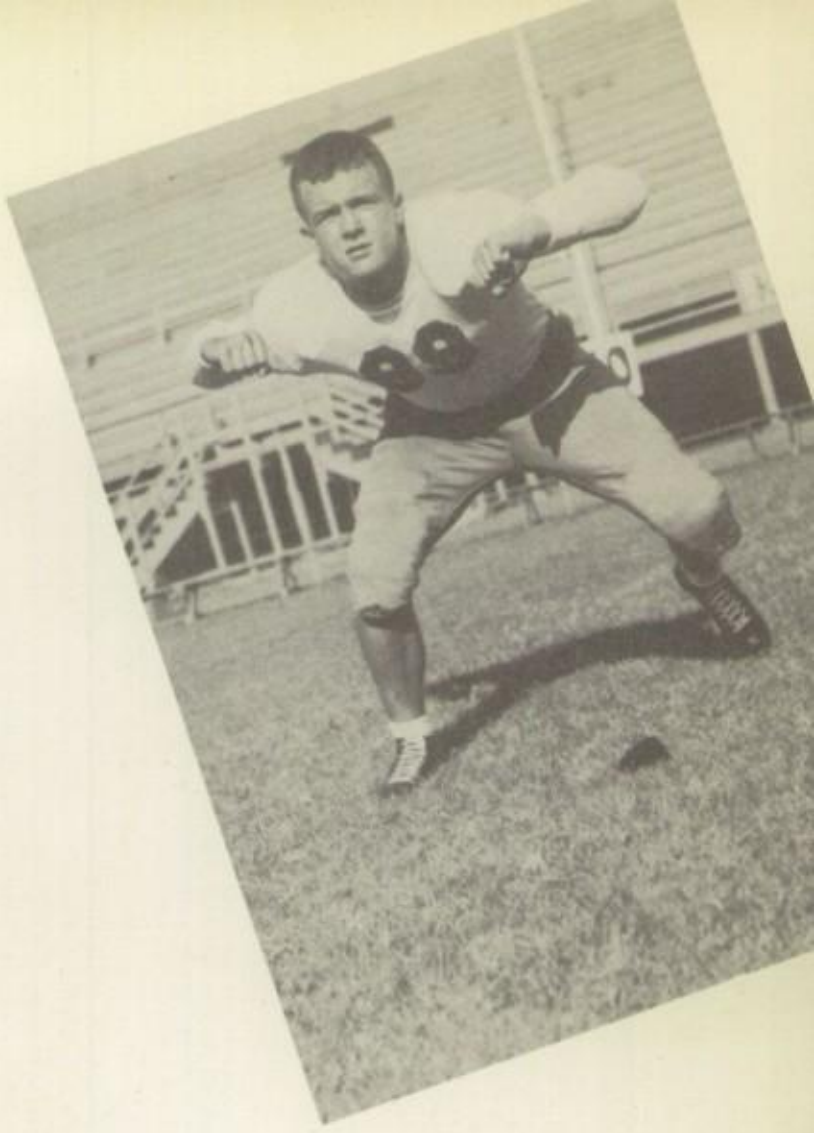
In this, his first year of football with the Coyotes, R. C. did not break into the starting lineup, but he proved to be one of the best pass receivers on the team. Although he was the lightest end, R. C. was a hard worker.





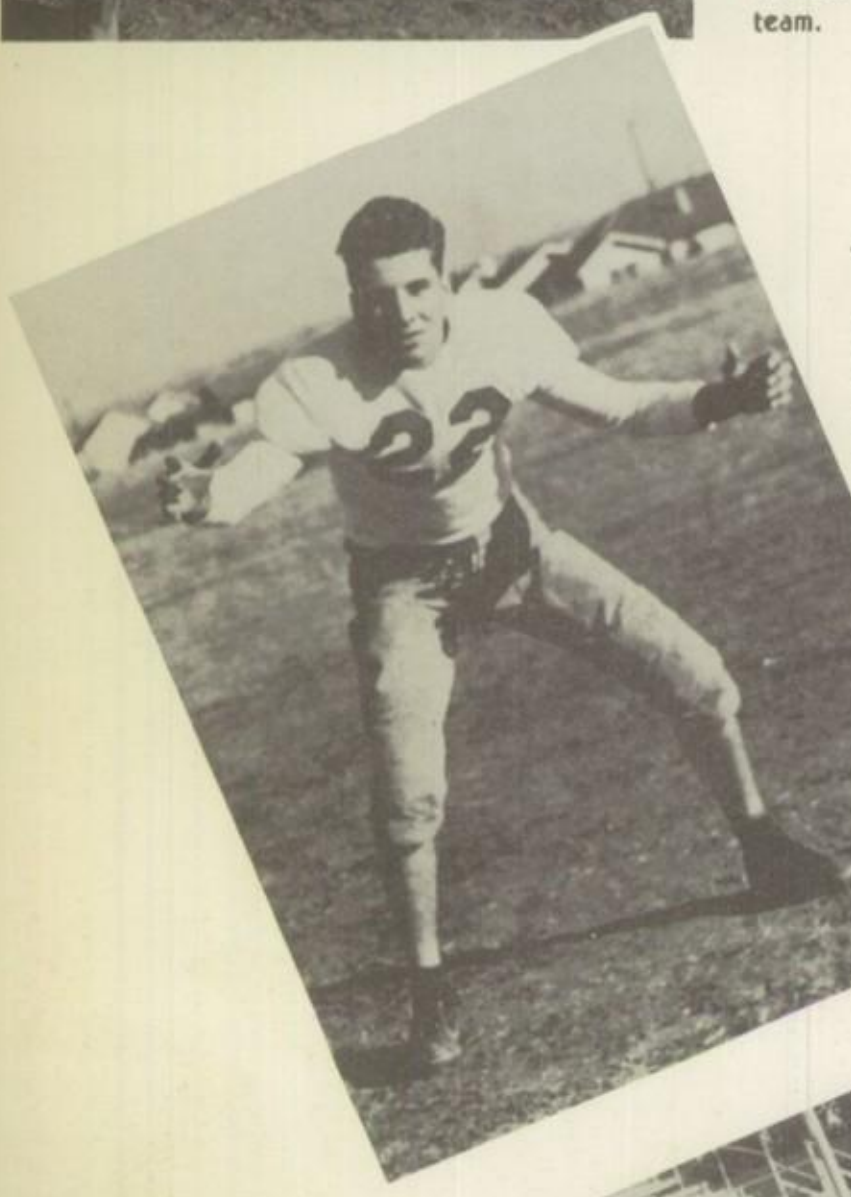
B. J. DEVERS

Although B. J. didn't play regularly, his spirit as well as his ability made him a good lineman.



HENRY ARMSTRONG

Another Coyote who made the all district second team was guard Henry Armstrong, the biggest man on the team. Henry received his third letter this season, and Coyote fans will certainly miss the last of the "Army" brothers. He is one of the best college prospects on the team.

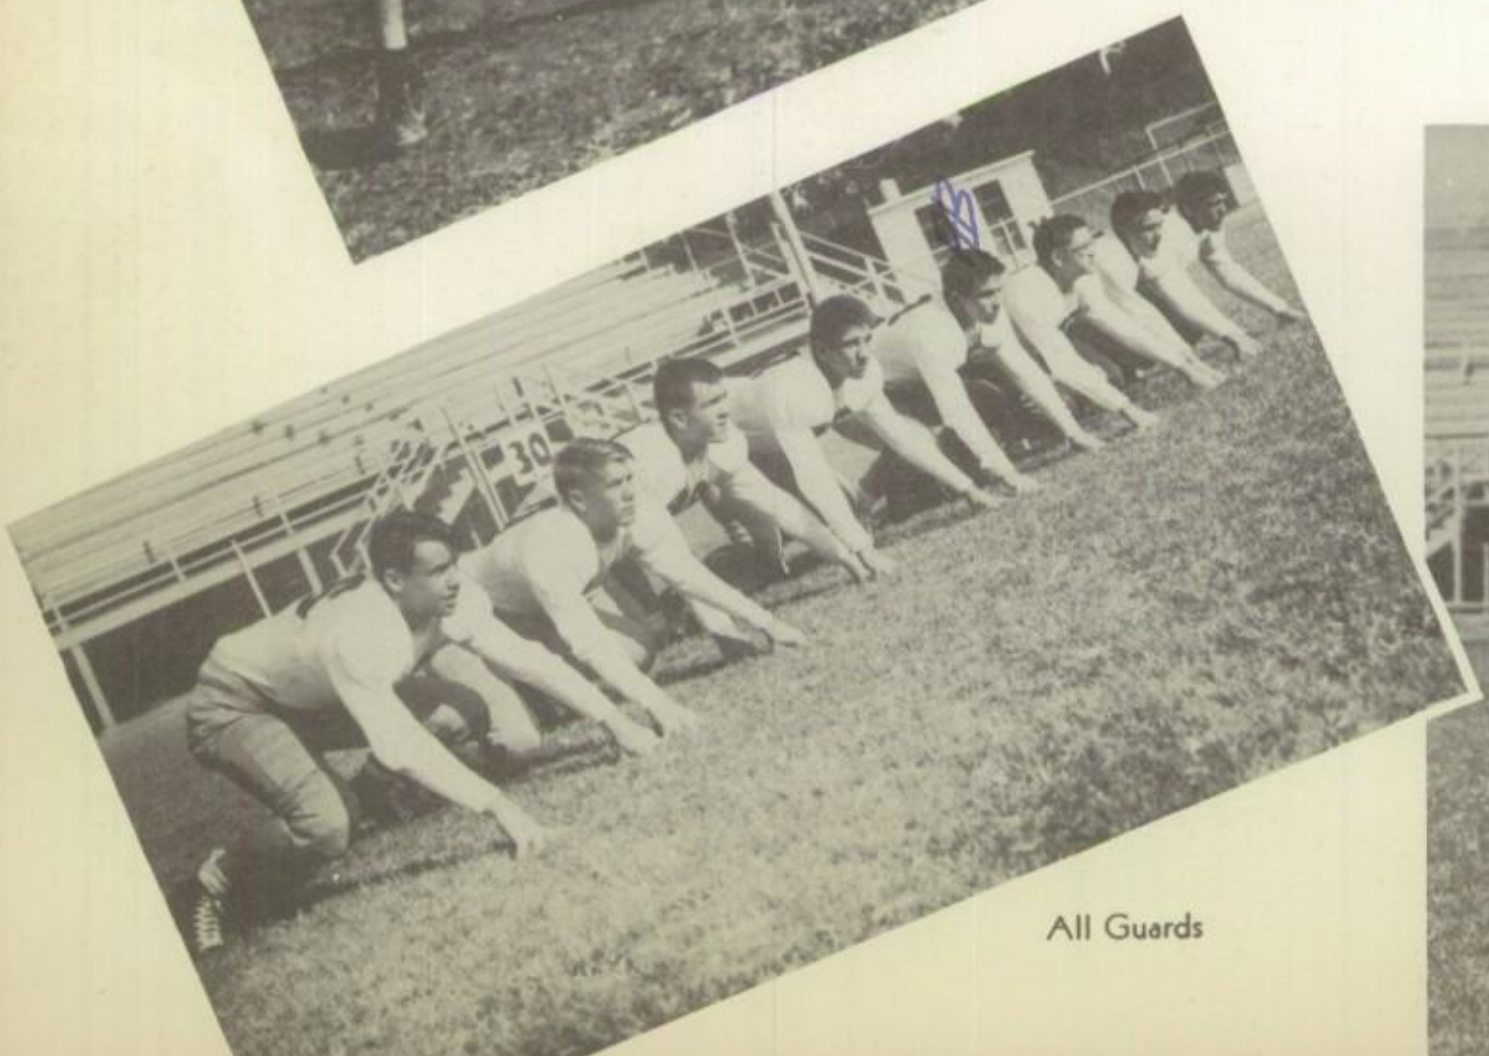


JOE MEISSNER

Although he was not on the Coyote starting eleven, guard Joe Meissner saw considerable service in this his second year with the Coyotes. An alert and hard playing man, Joe is a senior who will have another year of eligibility. The Coyote prospects for next season will be much brighter if Joe returns.

PHIL BOLIN

Phil was one of the most dependable players on the squad. He held down a regular guard post and was mentioned on the all-district eleven. His endless spirit as well as his aggressiveness account for his fine quality of play. Phil will not return next year.

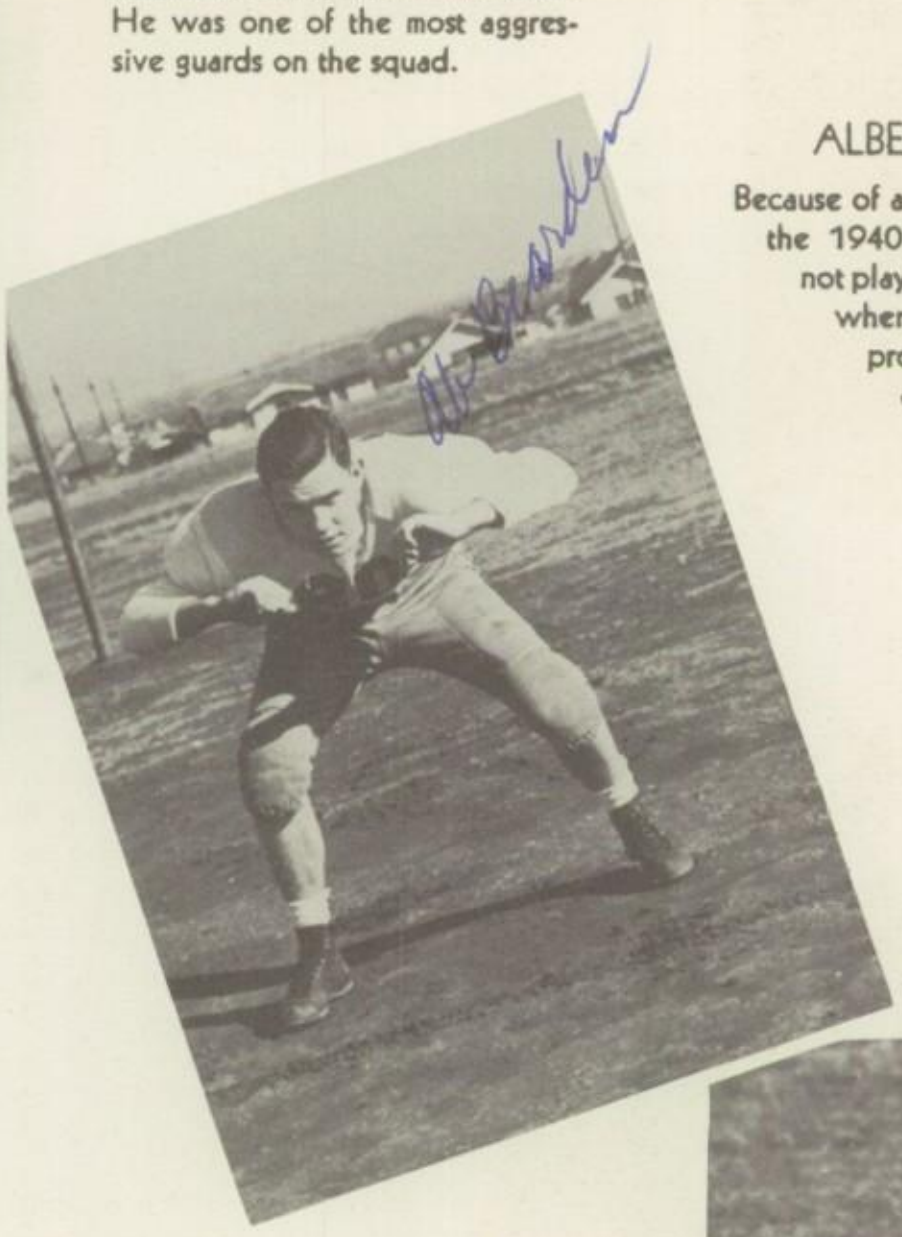


All Guards

Guards

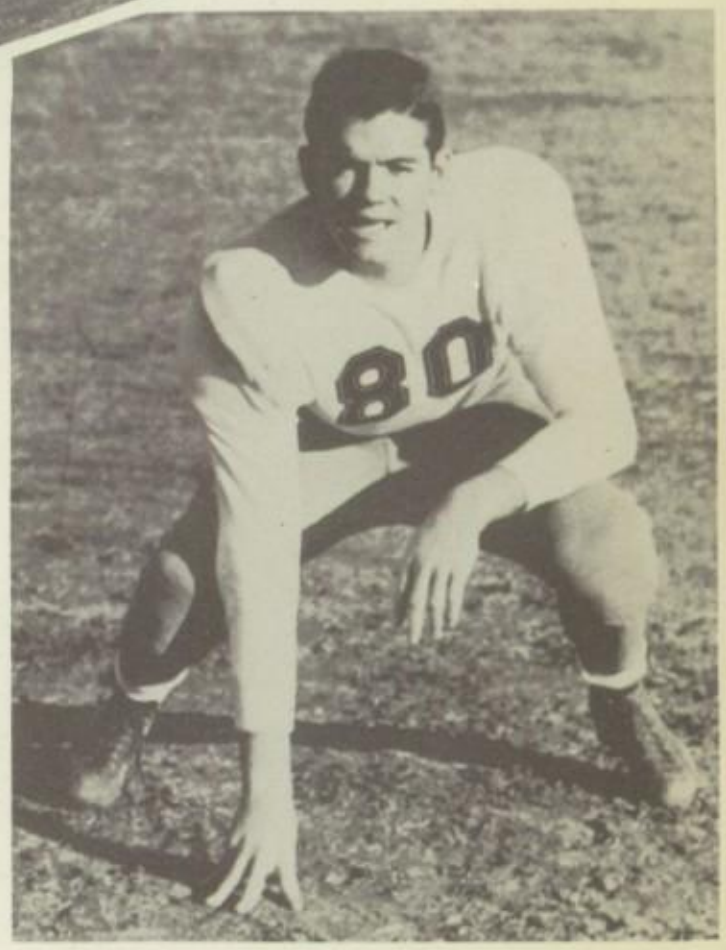
OSMOND WARREN

Even though Osmond broke his hand in mid-season, he played much before and after his accident. He was one of the most aggressive guards on the squad.



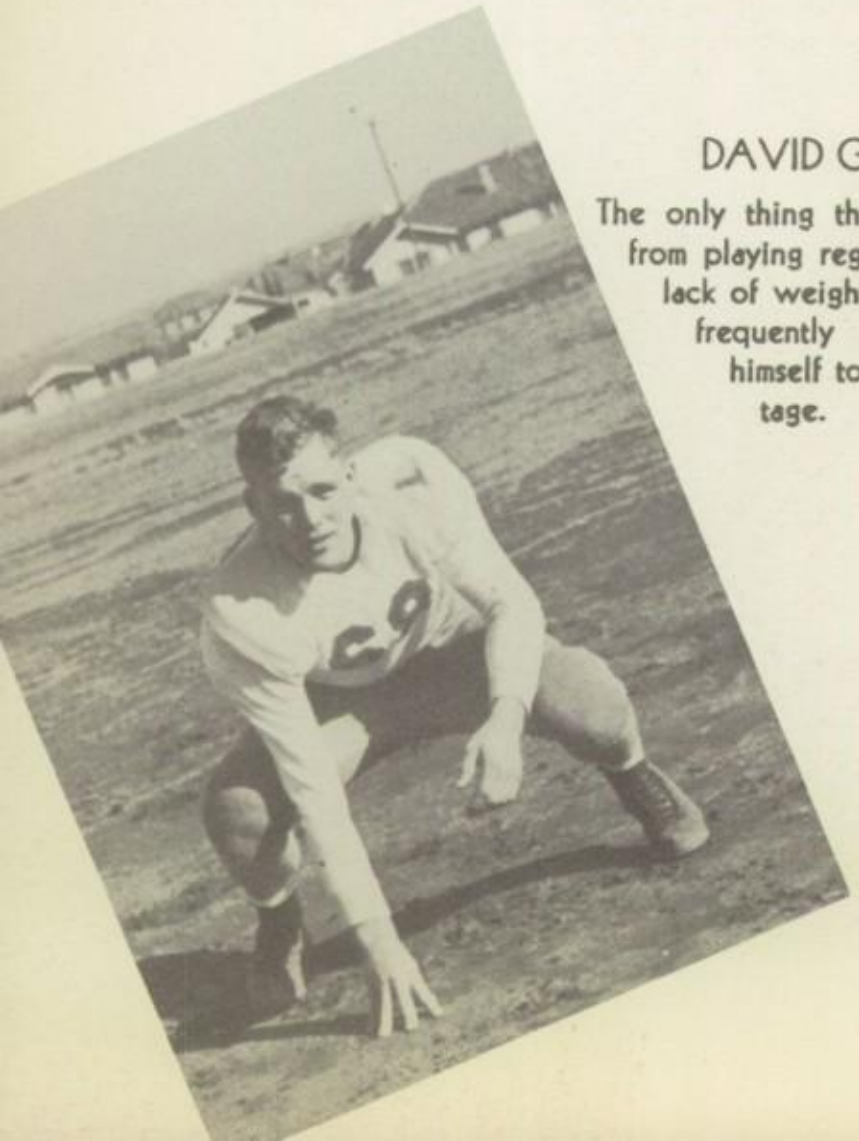
ALBERT BEARDEN

Because of an excess of guards on the 1940 eleven, Albert did not play regularly. However, when he did play, he proved himself a valuable reserve. This is his last year.



ROYCE TASKER

Royce, brother of Kenneth who played last year, proved to be a good, dependable guard. He graduates this year.



DAVID GREEN

The only thing that kept David from playing regularly was his lack of weight. He played frequently and showed himself to good advantage.

Maxine Fuson well deserves the title of most popular, since she has the unique distinction of being elected football queen for the second successive year. Her loyal and enthusiastic support of the Coyotes on every occasion has won for her the rightful honor of queen.

"Loyal supporter of his team, his school, and his friends" might well be the title given Max Bumgardner, the Captain of the Coyotes. Not only did he lead his teammates to victory by his cheerful encouragement, but his fair judgment and superb playing incited admiration from the coaches and players as well.

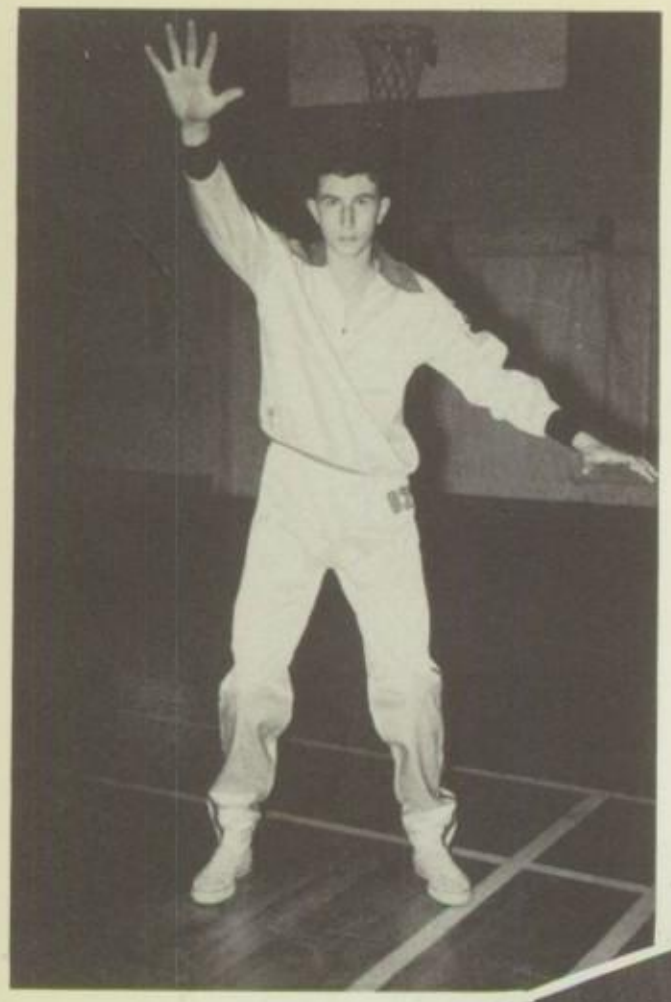
Basketball



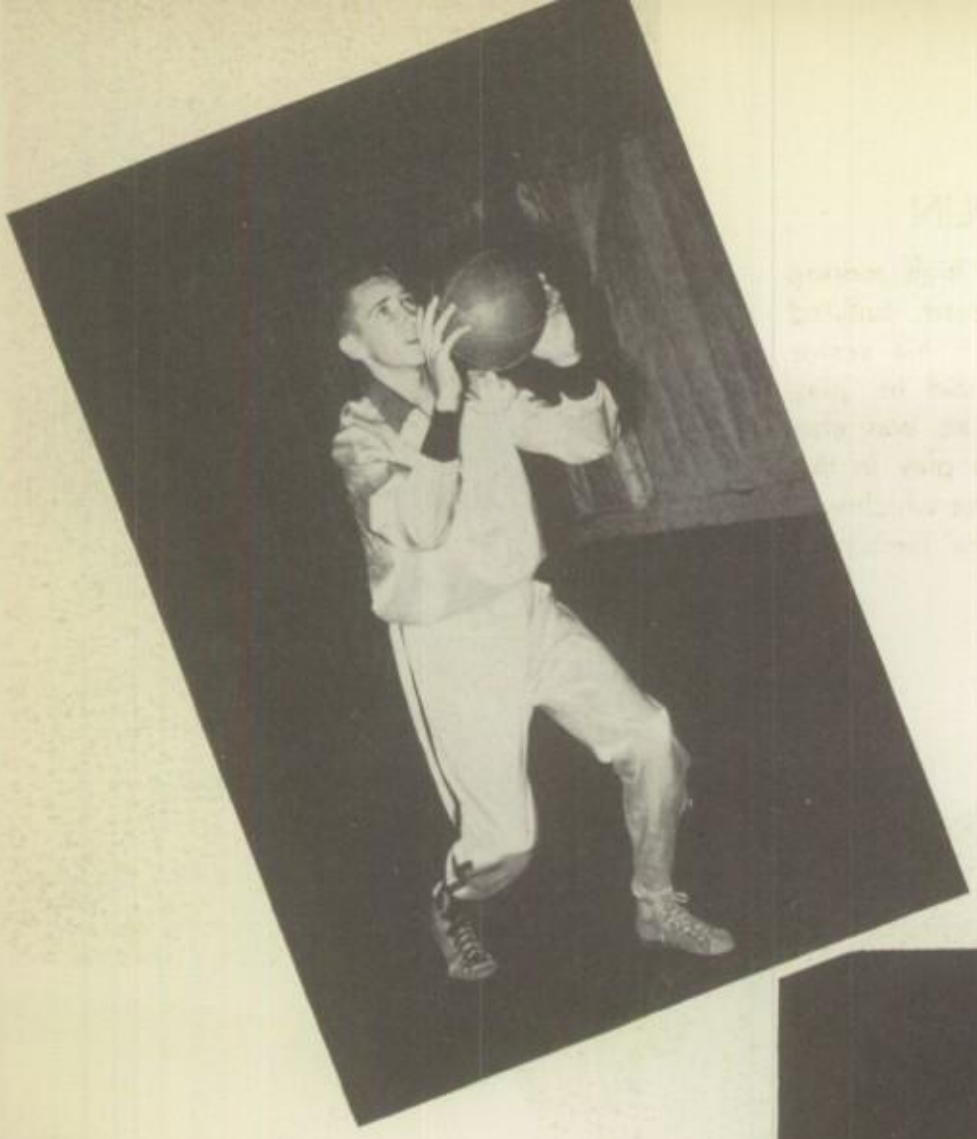
PHILLIPS CUNNINGHAM

Phillips, a senior, filled the regular center post for the Coyotes this year. His height, as well as his ability, was advantageous in enabling him to become high scorer of the team. Coach Beck is convinced that Phillips will develop into a star college basketeer.

Coyotes defeat Vernon, 27-26.

MAX BUMGARDNER

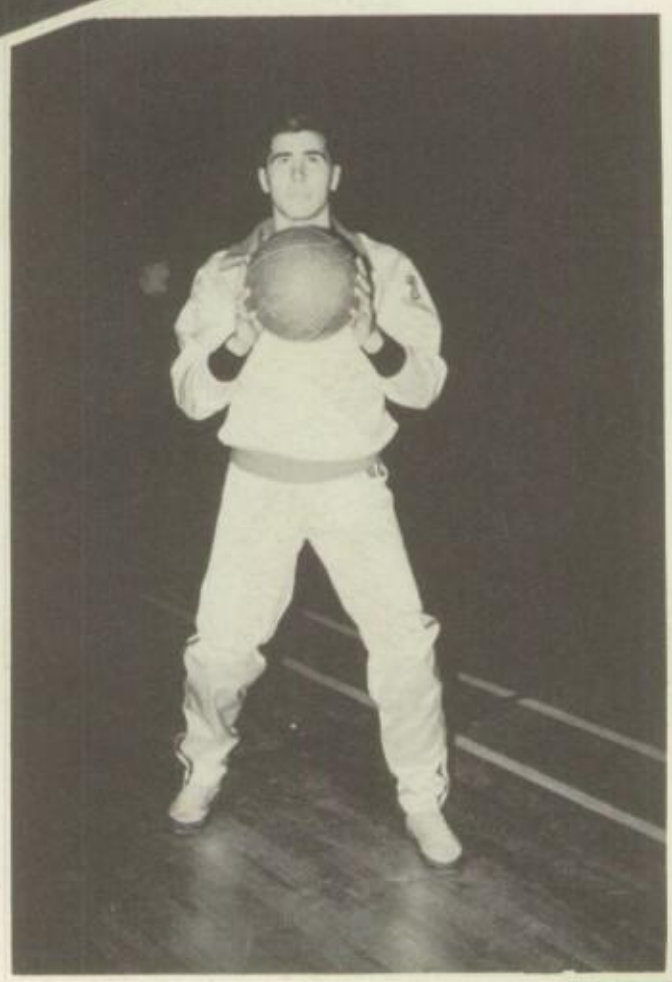
Max, a three year letterman, was more efficient at basketball this year than in any preceding season. He started nearly every game at his forward position and was second highest scorer. The Coyotes will lose a very good player when Max graduates this year.



JACK PARKER

While earning his second basket ball letter, Jack proved to be not only a good player but also a fine sport. His aggressive style of play will be missed next year.

This season proved a very successful one for Coach Beck's Coyote cagers. After winning the Big Six Conference championship, they went on to finish the season with a record of eleven won and six lost. The team averaged thirty points a game; this is a good average for a high school quintet.

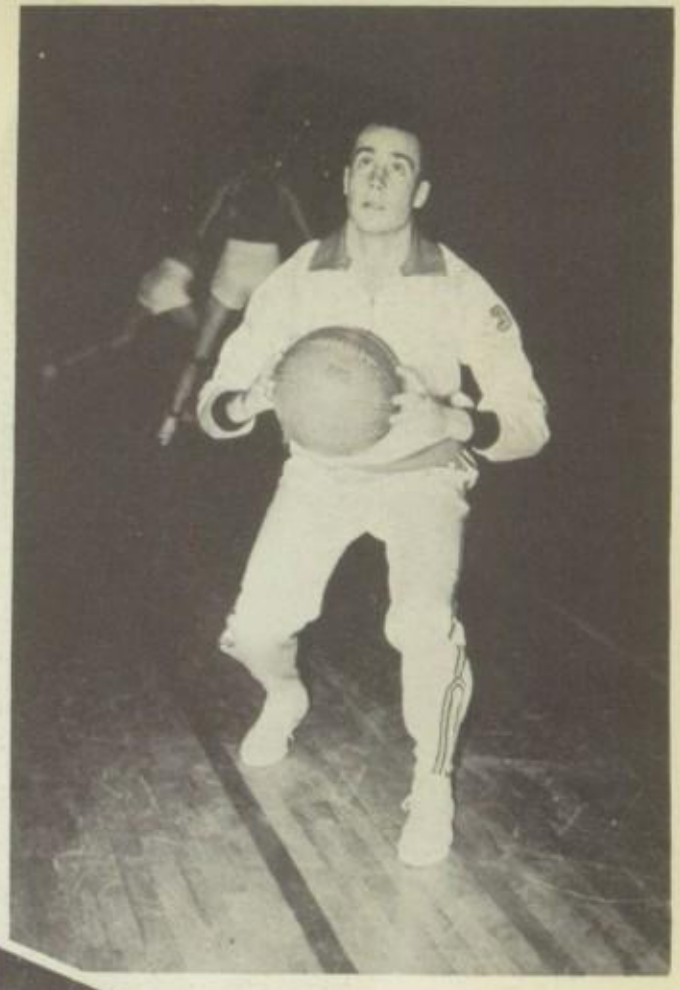


MacCHARLES HUFF

MacCharles, a football star also held down a regular guard position on the basketball squad. His experience not only acted as a steadying influence on the other players, but it also enabled him to play well.

DICK FRAZEE

"Southpaw" Frazee was one of the most reliable substitutes on the squad. He played a large part of practically every game and proved to be an accurate shot and a smooth ball-handler.

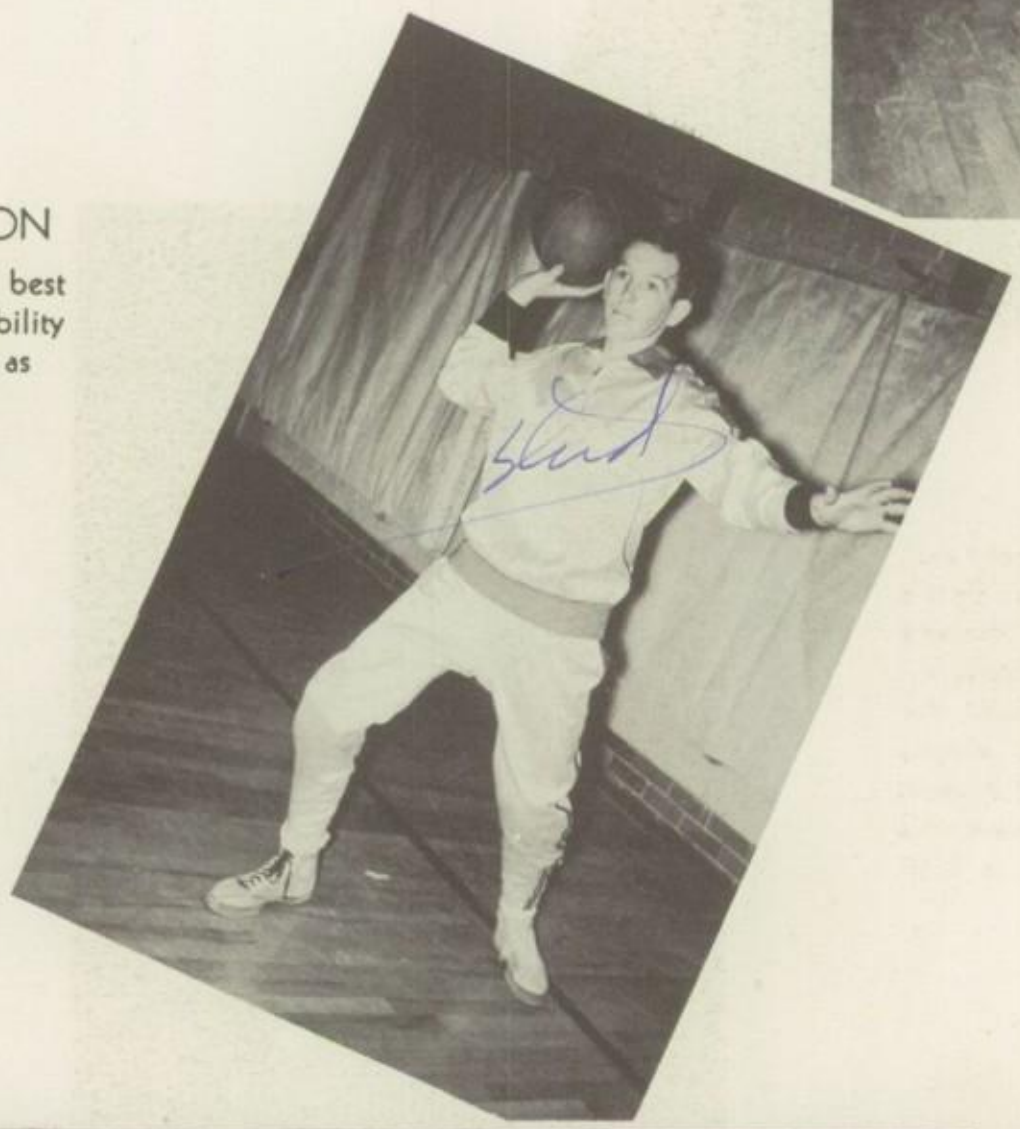


PHIL BOLIN

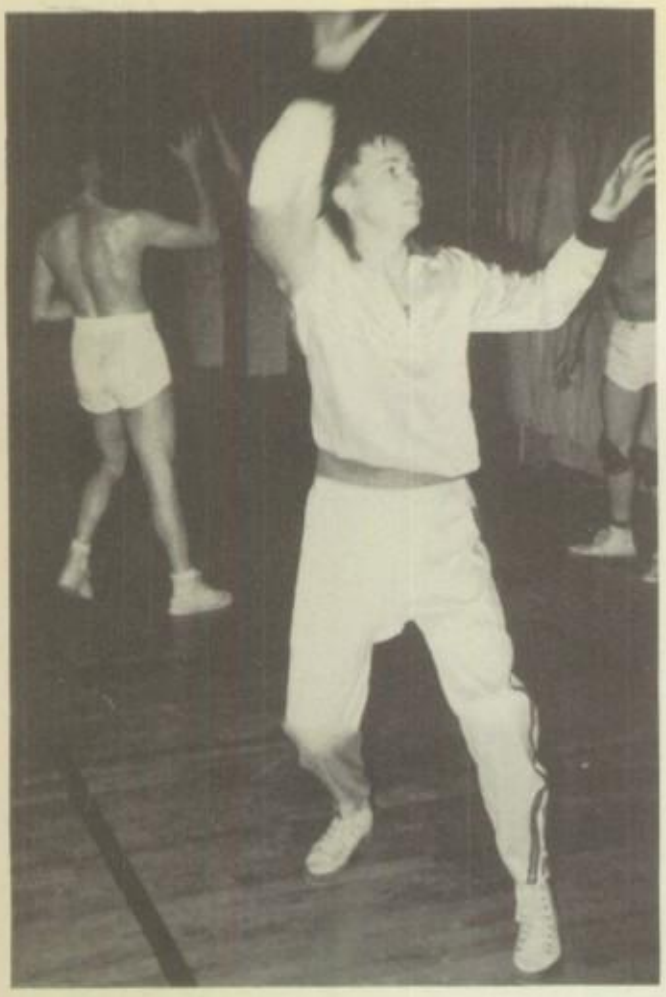
Phil, one of the high scoring members of the squad, fulfilled every expectation in his senior year. Not only did he play regular guard, but he was also the only Coyote to play in the East-West all-star game which was held here during the Basketball Clinic.

STANLEY WILLIAMSON

Stanley was probably the best hustler on the team. His ability and his spirit labeled him as a very valuable forward. He may return next year.

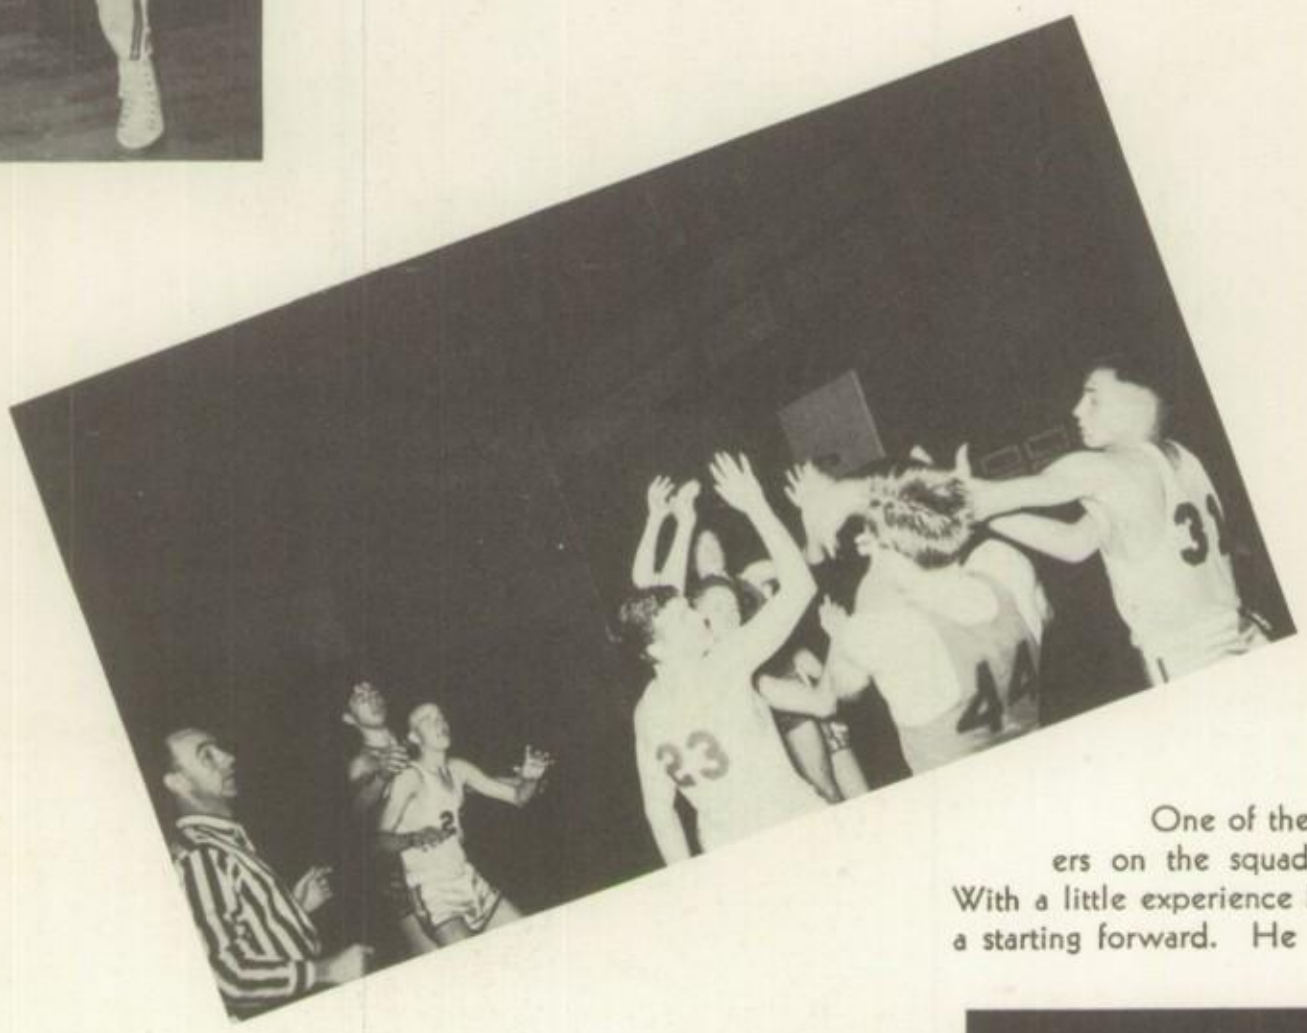


COYOTES 31
OLNEY 26



PHIL BALLINGER

Phil, a fast, shifty forward, was another reserve who played frequently. He was ineligible last year, but he has developed into a fine player this season.



R. C. WEST

One of the most popular players on the squad was R. C. West. With a little experience he might have been a starting forward. He graduates this year.

Cherry makes a birdie!

Led by David Nelson, Don Cherry, Calvin Rogers, and Van Melton, the golf team did very well in 1940. Mr. Garland, the coach, being a fine golfer himself, was able to give the boys many pointers on the technical phases of the game.

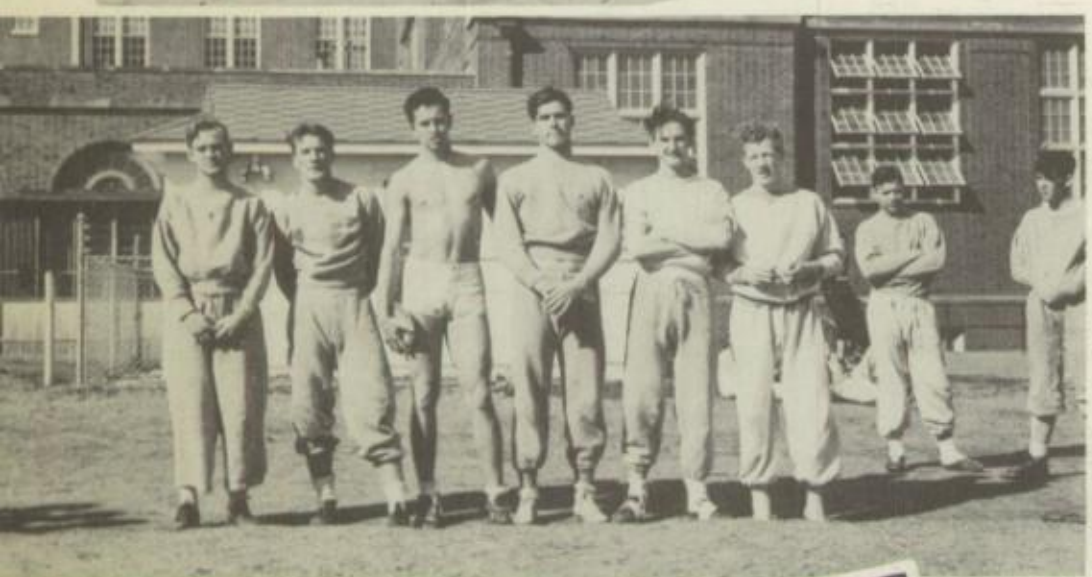
1941 Track Squad

GENE HILL,
the best prospect for the 100 and 220 yard dashes.



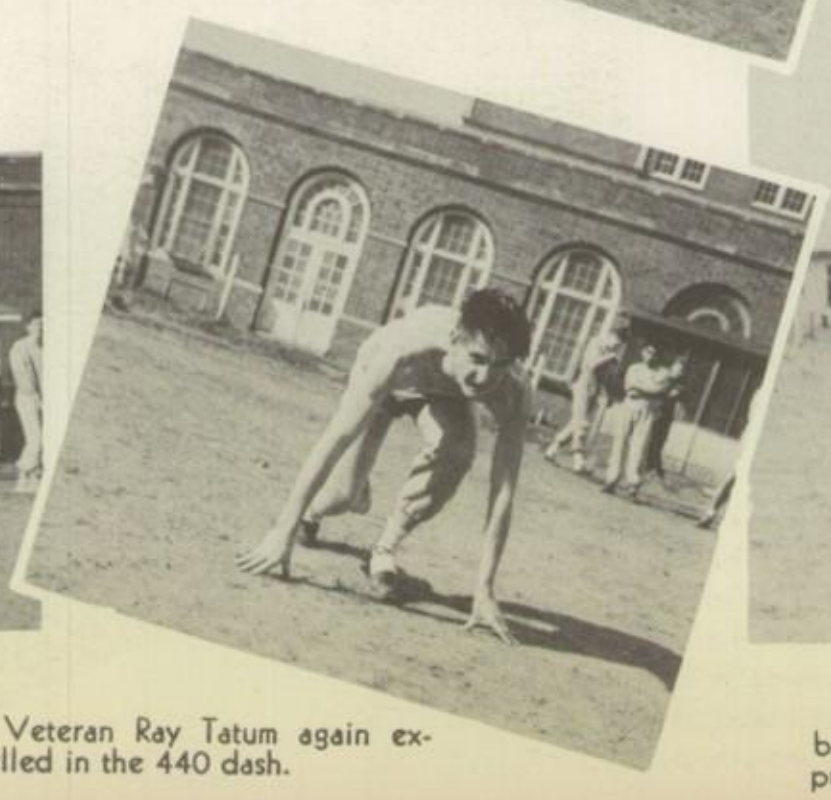
MAX BUMGARDNER

Max, a veteran track star, again represented WFHS in the discus throw.

DOYLE STENGLE

Through tiring work-outs, Doyle became the best miler on the squad.

Hill and Stengle warm up.



Veteran Ray Tatum again excelled in the 440 dash.

MacCHARLES HUFF

Huff, a fine, all-round athlete, became the most adept shot-putter.

Tennis

Shown here with a group of the best racquet-wielders are faculty members Rider and Harrison, who play with the best of the students.

Larry Moore, one-half of the doubles team and winner of many school tournaments, was one of the most feared players in WFSH.

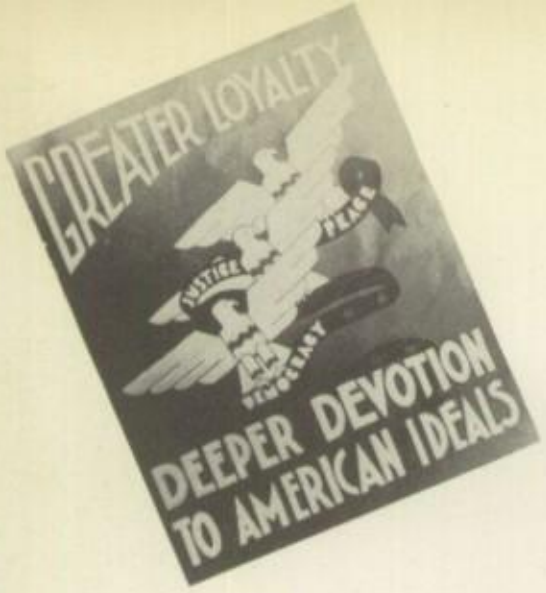
Senior Frank Bowdle, who is noted for his fine all-round game, was Moore's doubles partner.

Larry and Frank were district campions.

Half of the girls' doubles team and finalist in the singles tournament, Lelia Bulkeley has a bright tennis future.

By winning the girls' singles tournament, Shirley Hathorn again earned the right to represent WFSH in the district meet, where she was victorious.

Bob Smith and Temple Driver, leading singles contenders. Bob was eliminated in the district finals.



Editors' Note

Once more we come to the end of another "Coyote" and another year in WFSH. While looking back over the many happy days spent in compiling this annual, we are reminded of those people who have so ably assisted us in presenting the book; and we take this space to extend our deepest gratitude to them.

To Mr. A. K. Presson and the office force for the valuable time they have given in checking names and classifying students, we are greatly indebted.

We owe our appreciation to Clyde Bartlett, who made most of the photographs for the class section and the football games; to G. Soderlund and Ted Roberts, who made pictures for the favorite section. Also, we are grateful to the Times Publishing Company for the use of their football pictures which aided us to complete the sports section.

We acknowledge our thanks to The Steck Company, publishers and printers of the book; and to Mr. Winkler, Steck representative, for his interest and help.

The English teachers, who were so considerate in helping us with our choice of "Coyote" representatives from the various classes, and the loyal support of the "Coyote News" in helping us put over our picture drive and subscription campaign deserve our greatest expression of gratitude.

In conclusion, the editors express their sincere hope that this 1941 "Coyote" will serve as a pleasant reminder of those days of happiness and study spent in the class rooms and on the campus of WFSH.

Dearest Ed,

Gee! Just think, we've been friends for about nine ~~years~~ more years now. I hope that we will continue our friendship for another nine years and for even longer than that. In that length of time we have never had a serious quarrel and I hope we never shall. There is nothing any one needs more than a really true blue friendship. Ours has lasted so long, however, it is really more than just a friendship, don't you think so? I shall never forget the good times we've had together and I hope that we have many many more.

You deserve lots of love, happiness, and success and I'm sure that you have lots of all of them in store for you. May you always have the best of everything that life has to offer.

Lots of love,
Maxine Jones
cheer-leader

P.S. Remember when we were little how everyone used to tease us. It didn't bother us at all we just went right on being together and having just as much fun playing and being together as though no one said anything. It would be a lot better if we would always go on not paying any attention to what people say. I know from experience that gossip will ruin a friendship or even something more than just a friendship.

This may get a little boring because it's so long, but after all you asked for it, soooo. I could go on writing forever but the more I'd write the less it would come to meaning anything. So. Let's just hope that we remain the "bestest" of the best of friends.

Dear Eddie.

Gee! I hadly know how to tell how much I have enjoyed knowing you. although I haven't had the pleasure of being in any of your classes before this year, I think you are really swell.
